Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. xiv

Acknowledgment .................................................................................................................................. xx

Section 1
Emerging Visions for Nonviolence: Transforming Violence, Eradicating Oppression, Building Resilience and Inspiring Through Tragedy

Chapter 1
Preventing and Transforming Violence: Mindfulness and Conflict Skills ........................................ 1
Nancy D. Erbe, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
Swaranjit Singh, California State Education Vendor, USA

Chapter 2
Intersectional Dialogue while Combating LGBT-Phobia in Schools .............................................. 11
Yago Vieira de Oliveira Almeida, Federal Rural University of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Chapter 3
Approaches to Work in Reducing Entrenched Patterns of Violent Behavior: The CAI Model – A Peace Intervention ................................................................................................................................. 27
Christina McLaughlin, Independent Researcher, Ireland

Chapter 4
Transforming Violence to Nonviolence: An Approach, Lessons Learned, and an Inspiration – A Positive from the Negative of the Charleston Church Shooting ........................................................................... 43
Wayne A. Jones, Virginia State University, USA

Section 2
African Visions for Sustainable Nonviolence: Just Policing, Cross Tribal Sports and Nonviolent Teaching

Chapter 5
Tackling Police Brutality through Non-Violent Strategies in South Africa: In Search of a Holistic Approach .................................................................................................................................................... 70
Mbekezeli Comfort Mkhize, Stellenbosch University, South Africa
Phathutshedzo P. Madumi, Stellenbosch University, South Africa
Chapter 6
Transforming the Narrative of Violence in Kenya to a Narrative of Nonviolence ........................................... 95
  Mukurima Muriuki, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA

Chapter 7
Nonviolent Teaching: Creating a Safe Haven for Students ................................................................. 114
  Simon George Taukeni, University of Fort Hare, South Africa & University of Namibia, Namibia
  Matshidiso J. Taole, University of South Africa, South Africa

Section 3
European Visions for Nonviolence: Honoring Student Voice, Peer Mediation with Aikido Defense and Countrywide Nonviolence Curriculum

Chapter 8
Detecting Problems of Coexistence: Giving Voice to Students ............................................................ 134
  Carlos Monge López, Universidad de Alcalá, Spain
  David Montalvo Saborido, University of Alcalá, Spain
  Juan Carlos Torrego, University of Alcalá, Spain

Chapter 9
How to Create Sustainable Nonviolence Curriculum in Public Schools in Sweden: A Case Study ................................................................. 162
  Giuseppina Wright, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA

Chapter 10
The Teaching of Non-Violence in Italian Schools: Mediation and Aikido in Conflict Prevention ...... 182
  Nicoletta Casale, Independent Researcher, Italy
  Alessia Cerchia, Independent Researcher, Italy
  Luca Dal Pubel, Independent Researcher, USA

Section 4
North American Visions for Nonviolence: The Power of Youth Participation and Leadership as Well as Adult Vision, Leadership and Creativity

Chapter 11
Youth Participation and Leadership: Moving Together Towards Peace Education and Sustainable Development ................................................................. 200
  Dian Mitrayani, University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee, USA
  Robert Donald Peel, University of Hawai‘i – Mānoa, USA

Chapter 12
Implementing Restorative Processes to Mediate Conflict and Transform Urban Schools ..................... 222
  Anthony H. Normore, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
  Brian Jarrett, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA
Chapter 13
Holistic, Evolving Aspects of Nonviolence for Bringing About Needed Social-Political Change and Important Practitioners of Nonviolence .................................................................................................................. 238
   Linda Groff, California State University – Dominguez Hills, USA

Chapter 14
Saving Civilization: Strategies for Peace ................................................................................................................. 260
   David Overly, Citrus College, USA

Compilation of References ........................................................................................................................................ 278

About the Contributors .............................................................................................................................................. 314

Index ........................................................................................................................................................................ 319