Acknowledgment

The Editor of the book on Green Marketing and Environmental Responsibility in Modern Corporations would like to express his sincere gratitude and acknowledgement to everyone, including the contributors and reviewers, associated with this project.

At the outset, the editor extends his heartfelt gratitude to all the authors for their invaluable contributions. Their expertise, devotion and sacrifice for this current academic work are duly appreciated and acknowledged. Without their support, this book would not have become a reality.

Secondly, the editor extends his gratitude to all the reviewers of the chapters for their highly precious contributions for improvement of the quality, coherence, and content presentation of the chapters. Many authors have also played dual roles, as contributors and referees, in this project whose contributions do also stand hereby acknowledged. Apart from this, many academicians have reviewed the chapters without taking any credits for their work whose sacrifice and contribution deserve recognitions. The Editor shall remain highly indebted for their academic contributions that have indeed enhanced the quality and improvement of this book.

Further, the Editor further expresses his gratitude from the core of his heart to his past and present employers (Nagaland University and the Poompuhar College, India), especially the Teachers, Officers and Colleagues for extending their moral support to complete this project in time. Above all, my sincere acknowledgement goes to my parents, spouse, children, friends and relatives for extending their moral support and encouragement constantly during this project.
