I would like to thank all contributing authors for their time and efforts which made this book possible. I feel fortunate to be able to bring together such a distinguished body of eminent researchers for this project. Their high-quality contributions and insights on the topic make this book worthwhile.

It is also my pleasure to thank staff members at IGI Global for their support throughout the project. Particularly, I thank Kristin M. Klinger, Managing Acquisitions Editor, for her invitation and encouragement to initiate this book project and Julia Mosemann, Editorial Assistant, for her help in the development process of the manuscript.
