Table of Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................................................ xii

Section I

E-Justice and Change in the Administration of Justice

Chapter I
The Italian Style of E-Justice in a Comparative Perspective......................................................... 1
Marco Fabri, Research Institute on Judicial Systems, National Research Council, Italy

Chapter II
E-Justice and Policies for Risk Management.................................................................................. 20
Davide Carnevali, Research Institute on Judicial Systems, National Research Council (IRSIG-CNR), Italy

Chapter III
Judges as IT Users: The Iuriservice Example................................................................................ 38
Marta Poblet, ICREA Researcher at the UAB Institute of Law and Technology, Spain
Joan-Josep Vallbé, UAB Institute of Law and Technology, Spain
Núria Casellas, UAB Institute of Law and Technology, Spain
Pompeu Casanovas, UAB Institute of Law and Technology, Spain

Chapter IV
The Potential of Computerized Court Case Management to Battle Judicial Corruption.............. 57
James E. McMillan. National Center for State Courts, USA

Chapter V
Justice Beyond the Courts: The Implications of Computerisation for Procedural Justice in Social Security ...................................................................................................................... 65
Michael Adler, University of Edinburgh, UK
Paul Henman, University of Queensland, Australia
Chapter VI
Online Dispute Resolution

Melissa H. Conley Tyler, University of Melbourne, Australia

Section II
Experiences of E-Justice in the World

Chapter VII
E-Justice in Spain

Agustí Cerrillo i Martínez, Universitat Oberta de Catalunya, Spain

Chapter VIII
Italian Justice System and ICT: Matches and Mismatches Between Technology and Organisation

Francesco Contini, Research Institute on Judicial Systems, National Research Council, Italy
Antonio Cordella, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

Chapter IX
Electronic Justice in Brazil

Roberto Fragale Filho, Universidade Federal Fluminense, Brazil
Alexandre Veronese, Universidade Federal Fluminense, Brazil

Chapter X
Digital Government and Criminal Justice

J. William Holland, Georgia Bureau of Investigation, USA

Chapter XI
The E-Court Roadmap: Innovation and Integration – An Australian Case Study

Sandra Potter, Potter Farrelly & Associates Pty Ltd, Australia
Phil Farrelly, Potter Farrelly & Associates Pty Ltd, Australia
Derek Begg, Potter Farrelly & Associates Pty Ltd, Australia

Chapter XII
The Belgian Case: Phenix or How to Design E-Justice Through Privacy Requirements and in Full Respect of the Separation of Powers?

Yves Poullet, University of Namur, Belgium

Chapter XIII
Courts on the Web in Russia

Alexei Trochev, Queen’s University, Canada
Chapter XIV
E-Justice: An Australian Perspective ................................................................. 204
Anne Wallace, University of Camberra, Australia

Compilation of References ............................................................................. 229

About the Contributors .................................................................................. 244

Index ............................................................................................................. 249