Electronic Government Strategies and Implementations

Table of Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................................................ vi

Section I: E-Government Strategies, Concepts, and Issues

Chapter I
The Paradigm of E-Commerce in E-Government and E-Democracy .............................. 1
   Bernd Carsten Stahl, De Montfort University, United Kingdom

Chapter II
Implementing and Assessing Transparency in Digital Government: Some Issues in Project Management ................................................................. 20
   Bryane Michael, Oxford University, United Kingdom
   Michael Bates, Oxford Analytica, United Kingdom

Chapter III
The Dimensions of Business Process Change in Electronic Government ................................. 44
   Hans J. (Jochen) Scholl, University of Washington, USA

Chapter IV
A Strategic Framework for a G2G E-Government Excellence Center .............................. 68
   Roberto Evaristo, The University of Illinois at Chicago, USA
   Beomsoo Kim, The University of Illinois at Chicago, USA, and Yonsei University, Seoul, Korea

Chapter V
Access Control Model for Webservices E-Government Infrastructure .............................. 84
   Kam Fai Wong, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, China
   Matthew Ka Wing Tam, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, China
Chapter VI
Online One-Stop Government: A Single Point of Access to Public Services .......... 115
Efthimios Tambouris, Archetypon SA, Greece
Maria Wimmer, University of Linz, Austria

Chapter VII
Privacy and Trust in E-Government .......................................................................... 145
George Yee, National Research Council Canada, Canada
Khalil El-Khatib, National Research Council Canada, Canada
Larry Korba, National Research Council Canada, Canada
Andrew S. Patrick, National Research Council Canada, Canada
Ronggong Song, National Research Council Canada, Canada
Yuefei Xu, National Research Council Canada, Canada

Section II: E-Government Implementations and Practices

Chapter VIII
A Comparative Study of Strategic Issues of Digital Government Implementations Between Developed and Developing Countries ......................................................... 191
Yining Chen, Ohio University, USA
Wayne Huang, Shanghai Jiaotong University, China, and
Ohio University, USA
D. Li, Peking University, Beijing, China
H.Z. Shen, Shanghai Jiaotong University, China
P.Z. Zhang, Shanghai Jiaotong University, China
Lori Klamo, Ohio University, USA

Chapter IX
Effectiveness of E-Government Online Services in Australia .................................. 214
Xuetao Guo, University of Technology Sydney, Australia
Jie Lu, University of Technology Sydney, Australia

Chapter X
Implementing Digital Government in the Finnish Parliament ................................. 242
Airi Salminen, University of Jyväskylä, Finland
Virpi Lyytikäinen, University of Jyväskylä, Finland
Pasi Tiitinen, University of Jyväskylä, Finland
Olli Mustajärvi, The Parliament of Finland, Finland

Chapter XI
Participants’ Expectations and the Success of Knowledge Networking in the Public Sector ................................................................. 260
Jing Zhang, Clark University, USA
Anthony M. Cresswell, University at Albany, SUNY, USA
Fiona Thompson, University at Albany, SUNY, USA