Acknowledgment

The editors would like to acknowledge the help of all persons involved in the collation and review process of the encyclopedia, without whose support the project could not have been completed. A further special note of thanks goes also to all the staff at IGI Global, whose contributions throughout the entire process from the initial idea to the final publication have been invaluable.

Most authors of the articles included in this encyclopedia also served as referees for articles written by other authors. Thanks go to all those who provided constructive and comprehensive reviews. However, some of the reviewers must be mentioned as their reviews set the benchmark. Reviewers who provided the most comprehensive, critical and constructive comments include: Marco Pedroni, Giorgio Poletti, Athanassios Jimoyannis, Terry T. Kidd, and Lawrence Tomei. We thank them in a particular way for their outstanding contribution.

Special thanks also go to Jan Travers, who kept the project on schedule, and Kristin Roth, whose enthusiasm motivated us to accept the initial invitation to take on this project and supported us in carrying it out.

Finally, we wish to thank all authors for their insights and excellent contributions to this encyclopedia. We also want to thank all people who assisted us in the reviewing process. Last but not least, we wish to thank our relatives and friends for their patience and support throughout the realization of this project.
