Table of Contents

Foreword .................................................................xiii
Preface .......................................................................xvi
Acknowledgment ...................................................xxiii

Section 1
The New Landscape of Business: Markets and Morals in the Age of E-Business

Chapter 1
The Transformative Nature of E-Business: Business Ethics and Stakeholder Relations on the Internet ............................................................1
Daniel E. Palmer, Kent State University, USA

Chapter 2
The New Paradigm of Business on the Internet and Its Ethical Implications ......................15
Susan Emens, Kent State University, USA

Section 2
Anonymity, Trust, and Loyalty on the Internet

Chapter 3
The Anonymity of the Internet: A Problem for E-Commerce and a “Modified”
Hobbesian Solution ..................................................28
Eric M. Rovie, Agnes Scott College, USA

Chapter 4
Anonymity and Trust: The Ethical Challenges of E-Business Transactions ..............................40
Andrew Terjesen, Rhodes College, USA

Chapter 5
Trust, Loyalty, and E-Commerce ............................................58
Leonard I. Rotman, University of Windsor, Canada
Section 3
Marketing Ethics in E-Business

Chapter 6
E-Business Goes Mobile: A Fiduciary Framework for Regulating Mobile Location Based Services .......................................................... 80
Abe Zakhem, Seton Hall University, USA

Chapter 7
The Ethical Implications of A/B and Multivariate E-Commerce Optimization Testing .................. 91
J.J. Sylvia IV, The University of Southern Mississippi, USA

Chapter 8
Ethics in E-Marketing: A Marketing Mix Perspective .............................................................. 105
Erkan Özdemir, Uludag University, Turkey

Chapter 9
Moral Guidelines for Marketing Good Corporate Conduct Online ........................................... 120
Mary Lyn Stoll, University of Southern Indiana, USA

Section 4
Privacy and Property Rights Online

Chapter 10
Privacy Revisited: From Lady Godiva’s Peeping Tom to Facebook’s Beacon Program .................. 135
Kirsten Martin, The Catholic University of America, USA

Chapter 11
Against Strong Copyright in E-Business .................................................................................. 152
D.E. Wittkower, Coastal Carolina University, USA

Chapter 12
A Case for Consumer Virtual Property .................................................................................. 172
Matt Hettche, Christopher Newport University, USA

Section 5
Ethical Issues in Public Policy and Communication

Chapter 13
Fairness and the Internet Sales Tax: A Contractarian Perspective ........................................... 188
James Brian Coleman, Central Michigan University, USA
Chapter 14
Ethical Issues Arising From the Usage of Electronic Communications in the Workplace

Fernando A. A. Lagraña, Webster University Geneva, Switzerland & Grenoble École de Management, France

Compilation of References

About the Contributors

Index