Acknowledgment

My acknowledgements go to the authors who provided their proposals and put many efforts in the writing and revising of their chapters. Furthermore, I appreciated that there were so many colleagues who served as reviewers. By their thorough reviews they helped the authors and me to strengthen the chapters and to increase the quality of this book. My particular thank goes to Heinz Mandl, Frank Fischer, and the editorial advisory board who provided valuable advice and feedback. For supporting me in all kind of organizational and technical issues, my special acknowledgements go to Ms. Elizabeth Ardner and the staff of IGI Global who guided me through the smooth production process of this book.

Bernhard Ertl