Acknowledgment

Editing a book is a collective project, in which all the participants play an important role. For this reason, we would like to thank all the authors who believed in this project and gave their full encouragement for the success of this publication and thank to the reviewers their collaboration and patience during the process. Without they this book we’ll not be possible. In particular, we would like to express our gratitude to Domingo García-Merino who, since the beginning of this endeavour, helped us with his responsiveness and good will. We would like to thank all the members of the Research Group in Financial Valuation of Intangibles of the University of the Basque Country that we belong to, in particular, Rebeca López, Nerea San Martín and Lidia García for their help in handling the activities involved in this project. And we also like to thank the team at IGI Global, especially Elizabeth Ardner and Dave DeRicco, for their dedication and good will. Last, but not least, we also like to thank the University of the Basque Country and the Emilio Soldevilla Foundation for the Research and the Development in Business Economics (FESIDE) for their support to our research.
