Acknowledgment

The editor gladly acknowledges the support from all involved in the entire accumulation of manuscripts, review process, revision, and finalization of the book, without which the project could not have been satisfactorily completed. He is highly grateful to all the authors who provided their relentless and generous assistance, and especially those reviewers who were most helpful and provided inclusive, thorough, and creative comments, namely Kam Hou Vat, Mindy Anneli Lassila, Jiaqin Yang, and Martin A. Schell of the EAB. Thanks go to my colleagues and friends at SchoolNet and ICMS for their wholehearted encouragements during the entire process.

Special thanks also go to the dedicated publishing team at IGI Global, particularly to Christine Buf-ton and Julia Mosemann for their continuous suggestions, relentless supports, timely feedbacks, and wholehearted cooperation for keeping the project on schedule, and to Mehdi Khosrow-Pour and Jan Travers for their everlasting professional guides. Finally, sincere thanks go to my wife, Shamima, and daughter, Sausan, for their love and support throughout this period.
