El-Khazindar Business Research & Case Center (KCC) aims to build capacity in the development of quality case studies on businesses in the Middle East and North Africa region, and promote participant-centered learning technique in the region in a way that bridges the gap between theory and practice.

First of all, KCC would like to thank Dr. Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, President and CEO of IGI Global as well as all the IGI staff for their guidance, patience, professionalism, and dedication to produce a high quality casebook. Dr. Khosrow-Pour gave KCC the chance to develop this case book for the first time in Egypt. He also conducted a valuable presentation at American University in Cairo last March “Preparing Acceptable Teaching Case Studies: Opportunities and Challenges” to guide American University in Cairo faculty on writing publishable cases.

It is a great pleasure for us to send our heartfelt thanks to Dr. Adel El-Ansary, Donna L. Harper Professor of Marketing at the Coggin College of Business, University of North Florida, for his great effort and valuable time as the Editor-in-Chief of this case book. His expertise, guidance, and eye to detail and perfection have been invaluable to this project.

In addition, we would like to take this opportunity to thank all reviewers, English editors, and KCC team who contributed tremendously towards the successful completion of the manuscript. Reviewers and editors exerted great efforts to send us thorough feedbacks to produce high quality case studies.

Finally, we would like to thank Dr. Sherif Kamel, Dean of the School of Business at the American University in Cairo (AUC) for his continuous support and encouragement. He supported us since the first stages of developing this case book as he introduced KCC to IGI Global.
