Acknowledgment

The editor would like to acknowledge the help of all involved in the collation and review process of the handbook, without whose support the project could not have been satisfactorily completed. I would like to thank all the staff at IGI Global. In particular, my thanks go to Kristin M. Roth, Managing Development Editor, who kept the project on schedule by continuously monitoring the progress on every stage; Dr. Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, Senior Editor; Kristin M. Klinger, Director of Editorial Content; and Jan Travers, Vice President of Editorial, whose contributions throughout the whole process from the initial idea to final publication have been invaluable. I would like to express my sincere thanks to the advisory board and my employer, Johannes Kepler University Linz, and my colleagues at the Institute of Tele-cooperation for supporting this project. A special thank you goes to my colleague Patricia Sedlar who assisted me in the entire process of the handbook from collecting and indexing the chapters, constantly reminding authors to complete the missing parts of their submissions, to many other housekeeping duties, which are endless.

In closing, I wish to thank all of the authors for their insights and excellent contributions to this handbook, in addition to all those who assisted in the review process.
