Acknowledgment

Editing a handbook is a quite hard but compensating and enriching task, as it involves an array of different activities like contacts with authors and reviewers, exchange of ideas and experiences, process management, organization and integration of contents, and many other, with the permanent objective of creating a book that meets the public expectations. And this task cannot be accomplished without a great help and support from many sources. The authors would like to acknowledge the help, support and believe of all who made possible this creation.

First of all, this handbook would not have been possible without the ongoing professional support of the team of professionals of IGI Global. We are most grateful to Dr. Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, senior acquisitions editor, and to Jan Travers, managing director, for the opportunity. A very special word of gratitude is due to Mrs. Rebecca Beistline and Mrs. Julia Mosemann, development editors, and to Ms. Christine Bufton, editorial assistant, for her professional guidance and friendly words of advisory, encouragement and prompt help.

Special thanks go also to all the staff at IGI Global, whose contributions throughout the process of making this handbook available all over the world was invaluable.

To the editorial board, the expression of our gratitude for sharing with us their knowledge and experience in the support of the decision-making inherent to the project, for helping the review process and the shaping of the handbook.

We are grateful to all the authors, for their insights and excellent contributions to this handbook. Also we are grateful to most of the authors who simultaneously served as referees for chapters written by other authors, for their insights, valuable contributions, prompt collaboration and constructive comments. Thank you all, authors and reviewers, you made this handbook! The communication and exchange of views within this truly global group of recognized individualities from the scientific domain and from industry was an enriching and exciting experience for us!

We are also grateful to all who accede to contribute to this book, some of them with high quality chapter proposals, but unfortunately, due to several constraints could not have seen their work published.

A special thank to our institution, the Polytechnic Institute of Câvado and Ave, for providing the material resources and all the necessary logistics.

Thank you.
