Table of Contents

Preface: Multiple Perspectives on the Ethical Issues of Globalization .......................................................... vii

Chapter 1
Globalization and International Labor Standards, Codes of Conduct, and Ethics: An International HRM Perspective ................................................................................................................................. 1
   * Dennis R. Briscoe, University of San Diego, USA*

Chapter 2
Embodied Ethics for Our Interdependent World: How Our Micro-Level Choices Lead to Macro-Level Impacts ...................................................................................................................................................... 23
   * Julianne E. Maurseth, Dominican University of California, USA*

Chapter 3
Unintended Consequences of Business with 4 Billion: Lessons Learned from First Generation BOP Strategies .................................................................................................................................................. 42
   * Nancy E. Landrum, University of Arkansas at Little Rock, USA*

Chapter 4
Racing to the Bottom? The Effects of Globalization on Global Ethics .............................................................. 55
   * Barbara A. Ritter, Coastal Carolina University, USA*

Chapter 5
Globalization in Benedict XVI’s Caritas in Veritate .............................................................................................. 62
   * Patrick Flanagan, St. John’s University, USA*

Chapter 6
ICT Ethical Issues, Globalization and Knowledge Society ...................................................................................... 78
   * Maslin Masrom, UTM International Campus, Malaysia
   Zuraini Ismail, UTM International Campus, Malaysia*

Chapter 7
An Eastern Approach to the Global Challenge of Corruptibility ........................................................................... 89
   * Dennis P. Heaton, Maharishi University of Management, USA
   Ravi Subramaniam, Maharishi University of Management, USA*
Chapter 8
Health Ethics in a Global Context ................................................................. 100

Win Phillips, University of Missouri, USA
Cheryl Rathert, University of Missouri, USA

Chapter 9
Women and Globalization........................................................................... 119

Mercedes Sánchez-Apellániz, University of Seville, Spain
Miriam Núñez, University of Seville, Spain
Maria José Charlo-Molina, University of Seville, Spain

Chapter 10
Fighting Hunger the Rights Way: Using Videogames and Children’s Human Rights Education as a Means of Promoting Global Citizenship ................................................................. 141

Katherine Covell, Cape Breton University Children’s Rights Centre, Canada
Robin MacLean, Cape Breton University Children’s Rights Centre, Canada

Chapter 11
Giving Voice to Values: A New Perspective on Ethics in Globalised Organisational Environments .................................................................................. 160

Mark G. Edwards, University of Western Australia, Australia
David A. Webb, University of Western Australia, Australia
Stacie Chappell, University of Western Australia, Australia
Mary C. Gentile, Babson College, USA

Chapter 12
Ethical Issues Concerning International Labor Migration: Indonesian Cases......................................................... 186

Alois A. Nugroho, Atma Jaya Catholic University, Indonesia
Ati Cahayani, Atma Jaya Catholic University, Indonesia

Chapter 13
Ethics of Global Tourism............................................................................. 200

Loykie Lomine, University of Winchester, UK

Chapter 14
Cosmopolitanism and Ethics: Ethical Dilemmas in the Implementation of the Cosmopolitan Ideal ............................................................................. 210

Roman Sukholutsky, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

Chapter 15
Corporate Social Responsibility in Water Services: A Developing Country Perspective ................................. 227

George Tsogas, City University London, UK
Chapter 16
A Critical Examination of the Assumptions, Beliefs and Ethical Considerations that Underlie Business Models of Global Poverty Reduction ............................................................................................................. 238
   Paul Roberts, University of Guadalajara, Mexico
   Grisselda Lassaga, Universidad de Belgrano, Argentina
   Isabel Rimanoczy, Minerva, USA

Chapter 17
   Audrey Bryan, St. Patrick's College, Dublin City University, Ireland

About the Contributors .................................................................................................................................. 287

Index ......................................................................................................................................................... 294