Acknowledgment

I would like to thank all the people involved in the different steps of the process. I would like to thank all the members of the Editorial Board for their extremely open-minded and direct approach and help. Then, all the reviewers for the high value of their ideas, suggestions and critics that were fundamental for the analysis and choice of the chapters. Special thanks to the people at the Department of Economic Sciences of the University of Florence and especially to Professor Maria Tinacci, Paolo Docioli, Patrizia Romei and Francesco Dini. I would also thank the people whom I worked with at IGI Global for their constant support and patience: thanks Dave and Myla. Last but not least thanks to Eng. Giuseppe Tortora for having strenuously supported me and shared his international professional experience, and to my family and newcomers.
