Acknowledgment

We would like to thank all involved in participating in our research and writing this book, without whose support this project could not have been satisfactorily completed. We gratefully acknowledge the business and IT managers who shared their insights and practices on IT governance and provided the material for the cases in this book. These managers include: Carl Tilkin-Franssens, Martine Allaert, Rudi Vanhaeren, Jan Vanhevel, Philippe Meerschaut and Paul Lietaert at KBC; Rudy Duyck and Marc Simons at AGF; Erik Cuypers, Bert Van Hove and Jan Desmet at Vanbreda; Kurt De Ruwe and Patrick Thomas at Huntsman; Luc Verhelst, Jos Muyschondt and Bert Loos at CM; Ghislain Claeys and Hugo Vercammen at Sidmar.

We are especially grateful to Bruno Segers and Dirk Tombeur of Microsoft Belgium for sponsoring this project. At every stage of our research they showed a great interest by sharing their insights and criticisms.

We appreciated support provided for this project by the business faculty of the University of Antwerp (UA) and the University of Antwerp Management School (UAMS). We also would like to thank our master and executive students who provided us with many ideas on the subject of IT governance and its related mechanisms.

A special note of thanks goes to Yves Hendrickx and An De Bie, researchers at the IT Alignment and Governance Research Institute, who did the interviews with the case companies and wrote a first draft of the cases. A very special acknowledgment goes to Senior Researcher Hilde Van Brempt from whom we’ve received great support during the development of the final manuscript. We greatly appreciated Hilde’s research insights and feedback on the manuscript.

We would also like to thank our colleague, Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, who showed great interest in our research and invited us to write this book. A special word of thanks goes to Kristin Roth, Jan Travers, and Michelle Potter of IGI Global who both supported us in managing this project.

Finally, last but not least, we would like to thank our families. Wim would like to extend his gratitude to Hilde, Astrid, and Helen who always supported and helped him with every project including this book. Steven whishes to thank Brenda, Ruben, and Charlotte for their support and patience and would like to dedicate this book to his father who unexpectedly passed away prior to the completion of this book.
