Acknowledgment

The editors would like to acknowledge the support of all involved in the collection and review process of this book. Without their diligent support, the project could not have been successfully completed. Not only “blind referees” but also some authors of chapters included in this book served as referees for articles written by other authors. We extend our gratitude to all of those who provided constructive and comprehensive reviews. Especially, we thank Akihiro Amano, Christopher Decker, Nobuyoshi Yamori, Masayuki Susai, Hiroshi Moriyasu, Guofeng Sun, Davis Simon, Miori Mary Motomori, Mary Toner, Glenn Anderson, Takashi Kubota, and Manami Fujishiro.

A special thanks goes to staff members at IGI Global, whose contributions throughout the process, from inception of the initial idea to final publication, have been invaluable. They have contributed much to the completion of this book. In particular, we would like to thank Jan Travers and Meg Stocking, who continuously prodded via e-mail to keep the project on schedule and Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, whose enthusiasm motivated us initially to accept his invitation to take on this project.

Financial support from Postal Life Insurance Foundation of Japan, Zengin Foundation for Studies on Economics and Finance (Japanese Bankers Association), Japan Post Research Institute, Aichi University (C-130), and University of Valencia (UV-AE-06-46) were also appreciated.

Finally, we wish to thank all of the authors for their insights and excellent contributions to this book.
