Acknowledgment

I express my deepest sense of gratitude to all the authors of different chapters of this book who not only visualized and conceived the idea for future Internet design, but also detailed their work in chapters. It is their effort and commitment that has resulted in the form of this book.

I am grateful to all the editorial board members of this book who spared their valuable time to review the chapters of this book. Their sincere efforts have resulted in quality production of this book. I wish to express my sincere thanks to Prof. Frank Zhigang Wang, University of Kent, Canterbury, UK for writing a foreword for this book.

I am indebted to my research students and colleagues in Jawaharlal Nehru University for their continuous support and valuable suggestions.

The team at IGI Global truly deserves word of appreciation as their valuable advice has helped me a lot in modeling this book. I am also thankful to them for the best compilation of the book.

I would like also to convey my love, respect, and gratitude to my dear parents who are always a source of inspiration in my life. It is because of their support and blessings that I was able to conceive this idea of the book.

I am grateful to my wife Meenu who provided me with the time and support to design this book. My love and affection to my son Prashast and daughter Navya for their patience and assistance to make this work possible.

During the course of life, we encounter many people who help us, share their valuable time with us, and provide support so that we can achieve our goals of life, I would like to thank all of them.
