Acknowledgment

Thanks to God for the gift of knowledge that He has provided me and the many people that He has placed in my life, which have allowed me to achieve all of my goals.

I would like to thank my daughter, Karla R. Banks, who was extremely supportive in numerous ways; especially enduring throughout the time it took for me to complete this book. Without Karla’s mature, independent spirit and personality, this project would have been much more difficult to complete.

I would like to thank my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene (Rosa M.) Hughes who have supported and encouraged my interests throughout my life. I would like to especially thank my mother for continuously keeping my family and me in her prayers, and for doing everything within her power to make her children’s lives better. I would like to thank all of my brothers and sisters who have always provided their support: Richard A. Hughes, John H. Hughes, Jerome Hughes, Jimmie L. Hughes, Terry W. Hughes, Bernice Hughes, Levern M. Hughes, Alfonso Hughes, Margaret A. McFadden, and Roselind L. Hughes. Their families have also been very supportive.

Thank you to Dr. Merlin J. Augustine, Jr. for his friendship and for writing the foreword for the book. It’s great to have someone who provides dependable, critical analysis of one’s work.

I would like to specifically thank Dr. Samuel Winchester for his support of this idea from its inception over 18 years ago, during completion of my Master’s degree, and at present. I would like to offer special recognition to Dr. Patrick A. O’Reilly for reading the initial theory paper and providing feedback for its evolution into this book and to Dr. Bobbie T. Biggs for reviewing the model upon its initial development. Thank you to Dr. Barbara Hinton for being the first to say, “Write up your work”.

Thank you to all the anonymous, external reviewers for all the insightful feedback they provided during the writing of this book.

Extraordinary thanks Dr. David Robertson, Dr. Mary Ford, and Sheila King for behaving like family, their friendship, and for reading the book when asked and providing sincere feedback for improvement.

Special thanks to Tim Franklin and Joseph Augustine for their brotherly support.
