Acknowledgment

The editors of this book would like to express their sincere thanks to all the contributors who made this book possible by devoting their knowledge, time, and continuous support.

We acknowledge all authors for their excellent contributions to this book. Their insights on various aspects of neonatal monitoring have enriched the book with essential multi-disciplinary topics in the field.

We are grateful to all the reviewers who accepted our invitation to participate in the double blind review process. The authors and reviewers are the backbone of this book. Their expertise, passion, and vision in the field as well as their kind cooperation in managing to meet the various deadlines during the publication process make this book of high quality and with rich contents.

We appreciate very much the valuable contributions of the Members of the Editorial Board for sharing their expertise and experience, for their insightful reviews on the structure of the book, and for recommending suitable reviewers.

We are grateful to Mr. Mike Killian of IGI Global for his professional support throughout all the phases of publishing this book. Our thanks also go to all the staff of IGI global for their efforts to make this book available worldwide.

Our special thank goes to Eindhoven University of Technology and Máxima Medical Center in the Netherlands for establishing the strategic collaboration and providing the institutional support for this exciting and challenging field of research.
