Table of Contents

Preface.................................................................................................................................................. xv

Section 1
Balancing and Constructing the New Rights and Freedoms of the Digital Era

Chapter 1
Balancing Digital Freedoms and Digital Liberties ................................................................. 1
  Bobbe Cummins Colburn, Grand Canyon University, USA
  Julie Nolin, British Columbia Institute of Technology, Canada

Chapter 2
The “Right to be Forgotten” in the Era of Social Media and Cloud Computing ..................... 10
  Maria Giannakaki, Karageorgiou and Associates, Greece

Chapter 3
The Right to Public Privacy under Surveillance: CCTV Technology and the Myth of ‘Public Security’..................................................................................................................... 25
  Christina M. Akrivopoulou, Democritus University of Thrace, Greece

Section 2
Personal Data, Digital Privacy, and Security in the Age of Information

Chapter 4
The Right to Privacy and the Protection of Personal Data in a Digital Era and the Age of Information ................................................................................................................................. 34
  William Bülow, Royal Institute of Technology, Sweden
  Misse Wester, Royal Institute of Technology, Sweden

Chapter 5
Data Retention and Security in Europe: Towards a New Right to Digital Privacy ..................... 46
  Clara Marsan Raventós, Open University of Catalonia, Spain
Chapter 6
Assessing the Evaluation of the EC Data Retention Directive .................................................. 67
Nóra Ni Loideain, Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions, Ireland

Section 3
Balancing Technologies and Fundamental Rights in the Globalized Public Sphere: ICT Practices

Chapter 7
Private Power and New Media: The Case of the Corporate Suppression of WikiLeaks and its Implications for the Exercise of Fundamental Rights on the Internet .................................................. 81
Angela Daly, European University Institute, Italy

Chapter 8
State Aid Control in the Broadcasting Sector: Has the Right Balance been Struck between Competition and Public Service Broadcasting? ................................................................. 97
Konstantina Bania, European University Institute, Italy

Chapter 9
Biometric Authentication in the Digital Age: Rights, Risks, and Responsibilities ..................... 125
Raymond Anthony, University of Alaska – Anchorage, USA
Bogdan Hoanca, University of Alaska – Anchorage, USA
Kenrick Mock, University of Alaska – Anchorage, USA

Chapter 10
The Better Part of Valor: Meeting Current Human Needs Online without Compromising Future Selves ........................................................................................................................................ 142
Shalin Hai-Jew, Kansas State University, USA

Section 4
e-Democracy and e-Governance: Human Rights and the Problem of Social Inclusion in Globalization

Chapter 11
E-Government for Social Inclusion? .................................................................................................. 158
Marios Papandreou, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece
Naoym Mylonas, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece

Chapter 12
Addressing Social Inclusion via eDemocracy Applications: Which Role for Human Rights? ....... 171
Evika Karamagioli, University Paris 8, France
Chapter 13
Human Rights, the Global War on Transnational Terror, and the Mixed Roles of ICT:
A Meta-Analysis .................................................................................................................. 186
   Shalin Hai-Jew, Kansas State University, USA

Section 5
Globalization and the Rights of the ‘Others’: Migration, Cultural Heritage, and Identity
Building

Chapter 14
The Concept of the “Other”: Migration, Human Rights, and Formalized Identity Building
Processes in Europe ......................................................................................................... 222
   Daniele Ruggiu, University of Padua, Italy

Chapter 15
The (Rebuttable) Presumption of the European Union Member States as ‘Safe Countries’ under the Dublin Regulation ......................................................................................................... 240
   Cristina Contartese, University of Bologna, Italy

Chapter 16
Cultural Property and Identity Issues in International Law: The Inadequate Protection of the Cultural Heritage of Indigenous Peoples ........................................................................... 256
   Athanasios Yupsanis, Democritus University of Thrace, Greece

Chapter 17
Inequality in the Freedom of Movement in the Union: An Analysis of Roma’s Deportation by France .................................................................................................................................... 278
   Knut Fournier, University of Nanterre, France

Compilation of References ................................................................................................. 295

About the Contributors ......................................................................................................... 333

Index .................................................................................................................................... 338