We would like to thank the contributors of this book. Their efforts made this book possible. We also thank the referees for their comments. Their constructive suggestions and revisions provided us with excellent guidance for compiling the book. We are indebted to the IGI Global staff, especially Christine Smith, Jan Travers, Mike Killian, Joel Gamon, and Erika Gallagher. Our universities (Middle East Technical University and Izmir University of Economics) were always there when we needed their support. We are also thankful to the research assistants from METU-TEKPOL (Middle East Technical University – Science and Technology Policies Research Center), Hadi Tolga Gökşidan, Nehir Yasan, Gülsevim Evsel, Derya Fındık, Cansu Durukan, Aslı Ertan, and from the Izmir University of Economics, Yekta Takım and Emrah Karaoğuz, for the variety of tasks they fulfilled throughout the project. Finally, our deepest appreciation goes to our families for their continuous encouragement without which the book would not have been completed.
