Acknowledgment

To ensure that this book is unique is in its insight to technology applications in Arab education sector, many hours and a lot of focused efforts were needed by many people. I would like to extend my great appreciation and thanks to everybody who may have contributed in anyway directly or through support and encouragement to successfully complete this fantastic venture. In particular, I would like to thank the respected esteemed members of the editorial advisory board for their important support throughout this undertaking. However, my genuine appreciation is to the great scholarly contributions of the authors of the chapters, who have also helped in the review and proofreading process.

My special thanks are extended to my students of the Master’s of Educational Leadership at Abu Dhabi University, who I had the honor to lecture (EDT519) Information Systems in Education course in 2010 and 2011, for they were my partners in the inception of the book’s idea, and they have also participated as chapter authors, reviewers, or supporters. These, students turned friends include: Maryam Al Shamesi, Amena Al Mulla, Eman Al Neyadi, Aisha Al Darmaki, Mouza Salim, Ahmed Ibrahim, Zakieh Al Disi, Salam Omar Ali, Hadia Abdou Abdul Fattah, Alia Fares Al Daheri, Nevine El Shoura, Mariam Al Saqer, Maryam Al Belooshi, Ikram Hussain, Imad Maarouf, Mazen Nassar, Ayesha Al Ali, Sameha Al Ali, Samah Jwaid, Abdulla Al Shamisi, Abdulla Al Ansari, Tariq Al Maskari, Souha Adlouni, Bashaer Al Kilani, Zainab Al Yahyaei, Sara Al Ahbabi, Khalida Saeed, Abbas Nasir, Ibtisam Jaber, and Reem Jaber.

I dedicate this work to my beloved parents, brothers and their families, and to my direct family members: Baha, Ahmad, Ayah, Dima, and Omar, and certainly the new addition to the family, my grand daughter Maya – she is just making our life much more enjoyable.
