Table of Contents

Preface ................................................................................................................................................xiii

Acknowledgment ..............................................................................................................................xviii

Section 1
Emerging Conceptual and Theoretical Perspectives

Chapter 1
Toward an Integrated Conceptual Framework of Research in Teen Online Communication .......... 1
  Robert Z. Zheng, University of Utah, USA
  Jason J. Burrow-Sanchez, University of Utah, USA
  Stephanie Donnelly, University of Miami, USA
  Megan E. Call, University of Utah, USA
  Clifford J. Drew, University of Utah, USA

Chapter 2
Internet Affordances and Teens’ Social Communication: From Diversification to Bonding .......... 14
  Gustavo S. Mesch, University of Haifa, Israel

Chapter 3
Unravelling the Web: Adolescents and Internet Addiction................................................................. 29
  Laura Widyanto, Nottingham Trent University, UK
  Mark Griffiths, Nottingham Trent University, UK

Chapter 4
Connected at any Cost: Adolescent Developmental Needs and Online Relationship Formation....... 50
  Susan M. Miller, Kent State University, USA
  Kenneth L. Miller, Youngstown State University, USA
  Christine Allison, Kent State University, USA
Chapter 5
The Internet and Adolescent Sexual Identity ................................................................. 69
Bryant Paul, Indiana University, USA
Lelia Samson, Indiana University, USA

Section 2
Current Legal Perspectives and Future Legal Needs

Chapter 6
The Role of Law in Adolescent Online Social Communication and Behavior .................. 85
Larry L. Burriess, Middle Tennessee State University, USA

Chapter 7
Do High School Students Benefit from the Children’s Internet Protection Act? .................. 103
Zheng Yan, State University of New York at Albany, USA

Section 3
Recent Research Findings, Educational Perspectives and Practical Applications

Chapter 8
Effects of Motives for Internet Use, Aloneness, and Age Identity Gratifications on Online Social Behaviors and Social Support among Adolescents................................................................. 120
Louis Leung, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong

Chapter 9
Fear for Online Adolescents: Isolation, Contagion, and Sexual Solicitation.......................... 136
Myron Orleans, California State University at Fullerton, USA

Chapter 10
Identifying Risk Factors and Enhancing Protective Factors to Prevent Adolescent Victimization on the Internet ........................................................................................................ 152
Megan E. Call, University of Utah, USA
Jason J. Burrow-Sanchez, University of Utah, USA

Chapter 11
Millenials, Social Networking and Social Responsibility ...................................................... 167
Sharmila Pixy Ferris, William Paterson University, USA

Chapter 12
Cyberbullying Internationally Increasing: New Challenges in the Technology Generation .......... 183
Ikuko Aoyama, Baylor University, USA
Tony L. Talbert, Baylor University, USA