Acknowledgment

Looking back over this year – long work, we feel a sense of deep satisfaction that we managed to achieve so much. In this brief section, the editors wish to acknowledge with thanks to all those involved in the process of this book, without whose support it could not have been completed successfully.

We have benefited from the help of many people during the evolution of this book. We express our thanks to Erika Carter, Kristin M. Klinger, and Myla Harty, IGI Global, USA.

Many persons have contributed time, energy, ideas, and suggestions for realization of this project. The strength of this book is largely attributed to collective wisdom, work, and experiences of academia, researchers, students, and practitioners. The book would not have been possible without the unflinching dedication of one and all.

The editors wish to acknowledge with thanks their families as they always supported us throughout editing this book and we really appreciate it.

We would also like to express thanks to the management and staff of Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar and Apeejay Institute of Management Technical Campus, Jalandhar, India for always providing us necessary support when we needed the most.
