Table of Contents

Foreword.........................................................................................................................xix
Preface............................................................................................................................xxii
Acknowledgment............................................................................................................xxiv

Section 1
Introduction and Background Research

Chapter 1
Perceptions and Approaches to Teaching of Award-Winning Teachers at
Research Intensive Universities Internationally .......................................................... 1
  Diane J. Salter, Kwantlen Polytechnic University, Canada

Chapter 2
Quality Teaching Quality Learning.............................................................................. 26
  Michael Prosser, University of Sydney, Australia & University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong

Section 2
Case Studies from Award Winning Teachers

Chapter 3
Quality Teaching in the Social Sciences................................................................. 39
  *Lynne Hunt, University of Southern Queensland, Australia &
  University of Western Australia, Australia*
Chapter 4
Life at the Research-Teaching Nexus: The Role of Design ........................................ 57
David Dunne, Simon Fraser University, Canada

Chapter 5
Using Technology in Learning and Teaching: Making the Right Choices
Involves Understanding the Problems to be Solved .................................................... 76
Ron Oliver, Edith Cowan University, Australia

Chapter 6
Applying Technology in a Classroom Setting, where Procedural Learning is the Focus ................................................................................................................... 96
Elliott Currie, University of Guelph, Canada

Chapter 7
White Coat Warm heART ....................................................................................... 106
Carol Ann Courneya, Health Sciences, Canada

Chapter 8
Mindfulness to Enhance Teaching and Learning....................................................... 119
L. C. Chan, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong

Chapter 9
Research-Inspired Teaching and Teaching-Inspired Research .............................. 131
Gregor Campbell, University College London, UK

Chapter 10
Inquiring Minds in Undergraduate Instruction: An Expression of the Teaching-Research Nexus .............................................................................................. 146
Tanya Chichekian, McGill University, Canada
Olivia (Liv) Hua, McGill University, Canada
Bruce M. Shore, McGill University, Canada

Section 3
Institutional Case Studies that Support Excellence in Teaching

Chapter 11
3M Fellows Making a Mark in Canadian Higher Education ...................................... 182
Arshad Ahmad, Concordia University, Canada
Denise Stockley, Queens University, Canada
Roger Moore, St. Thomas University, Canada
Chapter 12
Fostering Scholarly Approaches to Peer Review of Teaching in a Research-Intensive University ................................................................. 191
Harry Hubball, University of British Columbia, Canada
Anthony Clarke, University of British Columbia, Canada
Daniel D. Pratt, University of British Columbia, Canada

Chapter 13
Developing Scholarly Teaching at a Research University: Using Learning Communities to Build Capacity for Change ........................................... 212
Spencer A. Benson, University of Maryland, USA
Ann C. Smith, University of Maryland, USA
David B. Eubanks, University of Maryland, USA

Chapter 14
Motivating Teaching Excellence: Lessons from U.S. Teaching Awards .......... 228
Peter Felten, Elon University, USA
Ashley Finley, Association of American Colleges and Universities, USA

Chapter 15
Changing Culture: Developing a Framework for Leadership Capacity Development .......................................................................................... 239
Geraldine Lefoe, University of Wollongong, Australia
Dominique Parrish, University of Wollongong, Australia

Chapter 16
Getting the Context Right for Quality Teaching and Learning .................. 261
Lynne Hunt, University of Southern Queensland, Australia & University of Western Australia, Australia
Michael Sankey, University of Southern Queensland, Australia

Chapter 17
Achieving Excellence in Teaching: A Case Study in Embedding Professional Development for Teaching within a Research-Intensive University .......... 280
Iain Doherty, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong

Chapter 18
Pedagogical Action Research: Enhancing Learning and Teaching through a Community of Practice ............................................................... 291
Lin Norton, Liverpool Hope University, UK
Tessa Owens, Liverpool Hope University, UK
Chapter 19
The Single Most Consequential Thing We Do in Universities: A Case Study in Teaching Assessment to New Academics........................................... 304

Grant Campbell, University of Manchester, UK

Chapter 20
Reflections on the Role of Self-Paced, Online Resources in Higher Education or How YouTube is Teaching Me How to Knit ......................... 330

Cath Ellis, University of Huddersfield, UK

Chapter 21
Defining University Teaching Excellence in a Globalized Profession .......... 354

Kenneth Bartlett, University of Toronto, Canada

Chapter 22
Assembling the Global University: Networks, Interdisciplinarity, and Institutional Change................................................................. 366

Gray Kochhar-Lindgren, University of Washington Bothell, USA

Compilation of References ........................................................................ 378

About the Contributors ........................................................................... 414

Index ........................................................................................................ 423