Preface .................................................................................................................................................. V

Chapter I
Skills, Management of Skills, and IT Skills Requirements ............... 1
Makoto Nakayama, DePaul University, USA
Norma Sutcliffe, DePaul University, USA

Chapter II
An Approach for Managing an IT Skills Portfolio ....................... 26
Makoto Nakayama, DePaul University, USA
Norma Sutcliffe, DePaul University, USA

Chapter III
Challenges for Managing IT Skills Portfolio for E-Business .......... 52
Abdulrahman A. Mirza, King Saud University, Saudi Arabia
Susy S. Chan, DePaul University, USA

Chapter IV
Skills and the Worker: Let’s Get Real ........................................ 81
Elizabeth Lahey, Elizabeth Lahey and Associates, USA

Chapter V
Optimizing IT Skills Management Initiatives .......................... 103
Ken Strauss, Bookman Testing Services, USA
Chapter VI
Government Involvement in Skills Issues ............................................... 126
Elizabeth Lahey, Elizabeth Lahey and Associates, USA

Chapter VII
Japanese IT-Skill Dilemma ................................................................. 150
Yoko Takeda, Yokohama National University, Japan

Chapter VIII
Eliminating the Weakest Link: Leveraging Human Capital with Strategic Alliances in IT Outsourcing Supply Chains ...................... 176
Diana J. Wong-Ming Ji, Eastern Michigan University, USA

Chapter IX
John E. Anderson, East Carolina University, USA
Kevin Barrett, Dixie State College, USA
Paul H. Schwager, East Carolina University, USA

Chapter X
Extreme Interviewing to Find Team Oriented Programmers .......... 232
Clement James Goebel, III, Menlo Innovations LLC, USA
Richard Sheridan, Menlo Innovations LLC, USA
Thomas Meloche, Menlo Institute LLC, USA

About the Authors .................................................................................. 251

Index ....................................................................................................... 257