Modern Public Information Technology Systems: Issues and Challenges

Table of Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Pages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Foreword</td>
<td>vii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>x</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Section I: Managing Information Technology in the Public Sector

Chapter I
Lip Service? How PA Journals and Textbooks View Information Technology ................................. 1
Alana Northrop, California State University, Fullertan, USA

Chapter II
The Evolution of Federal Information Technology Management Literature:
Does IT Finally Matter? .................................................................................................................. 17
Stephen H. Holden, SRA Touchston Consulting Group, USA

Chapter III
Politics, Accountability, and Information Management .......................................................... 35
Bruce Rocheleau, Northern Illinois University, USA
Chapter IV
Reconciling Information Privacy and Information Access in a Globalized Technology Society .......................................................... 72
George T. Duncan, Carnegie Mellon University, USA
Stephen F. Roehrig, Carnegie Mellon University, USA

Chapter V
Privacy-Sensitive Tracking of Behavior with Public Information Systems:
Moving Beyond Names in a Globalizing Mass Society................................. 95
Chris C. Demchak, University of Arizona, USA
Kurt D. Fenstermacher, University of Arizona, USA

Chapter VI
E-Government: An Overview .................................................................. 110
Shannon Howle Schelin, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, USA

Chapter VII
E-Participation Models.............................................................................. 127
Suzanne Beaumaster, University of La Verne, USA

Chapter VIII
E-Government and Creating a Citizen-Centric Government:
A Study of Federal Government CIOs...................................................... 143
Christopher G. Reddick, The University of Texas at San Antonio, USA

Chapter IX
The Federal Docket Management System and the Prospect for Digital Democracy in U.S. Rulemaking.............................................. 166
Stuart W. Shulman, University of Pittsburgh, USA

Section II:
Computer Applications in Public Administration

Chapter X
IT Innovation in Local Government: Theory, Issues, and Strategies ............ 186
Charles C. Hinnant, U.S. Government Accountability Office, USA
John A. O’Looney, University of Georgia, USA

Chapter XI
Information Technology as a Facilitator of Results-Based Management ........ 204
James E. Swiss, North Carolina State University, USA
Chapter XII
Managing IT Employee Retention: Challenges for State Governments............. 221
  Deborah J. Armstrong, University of Arkansas, USA
  Margaret F. Reid, University of Arkansas, USA
  Myria W. Allen, University of Arkansas, USA
  Cynthia K. Riemenschneider, University of Arkansas, USA

Chapter XIII
Computer Tools for Public-Sector Management..................................................239
  Carl Grafton, Auburn University Montgomery, USA
  Anne Permaloff, Auburn University Montgomery, USA

Chapter XIV
Computers and Social Survey Research for Public Administration ...............265
  Michael L. Vasu, North Carolina State University, USA
  Ellen Storey Vasu, North Carolina State University, USA
  Ali O. Ozturk, North Carolina State University, USA

Chapter XV
Geographic Information System Applications in the Public Sector...............293
  Douglas A. Carr, Oakland University, USA
  T. R. Carr, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, USA

Chapter XVI
You Have Mail, but Who is Reading It? Issues of E-Mail in the Public Workplace....................................................................................................312
  Charles L. Prysby, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, USA
  Nicole D. Prysby, Attorney at Law, USA

Chapter XVII
World Wide Web Site Design and Use in U.S. Local Government
Public Management..............................................................................................337
  Carmine Scavo, East Carolina University, USA
  Jody Baumgartner, East Carolina University, USA

Chapter XVIII
An Information Technology Research Agenda for Public Administration.....365
  G. David Garson, North Carolina State University, USA

About the Authors..................................................................................................393

Index ....................................................................................................................401