Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. xv

Acknowledgment ................................................................................................................................... xvii

Chapter 1
What Do Library Workers Want From Professional Conferences? ......................................................... 1
   Samantha Schmehl Hines, University of Montana-Missoula College, USA

Chapter 2
International Library Conferences: The Professional Development Benefits for Librarians, the Hurdles of Attending and the Potential Outcomes.................................................................................. 17
   James Thull, Montana State University, USA

Chapter 3
Moving Beyond the One-Shot for Professional Development: The Value of the Intensive Institute Experience ................................................................................................................................. 31
   Elizabeth Blakesley, Washington State University Libraries, USA

Chapter 4
Growing Library Leaders for the Future .................................................................................................. 43
   Joanna Nelson, Pikes Peak Library District, USA
   Katherine Johnson, Douglas County Libraries, USA

Chapter 5
Providing Professional Development Opportunities to Staff in Tough Economic Times: A Guide for Administrators ................................................................................................................................. 60
   Kathleen L. Sacco, State University of New York at Fredonia, USA

Chapter 6
Benefits of Internal Professional Development for Academic Librarians ......................................... 76
   Carissa Tomlinson, Towson University, USA
Chapter 7
Free or Externally Funded Professional Development for Frugal Librarians ........................................ 90
Elizabeth Watson, Duplin County Public Library, USA

Chapter 8
Open Access Web Resources for Library Continuing Education and Training ............................... 107
Mary K. Bolin, University of Nebraska, USA

Chapter 9
Professional Development Opportunities for Academic Subject Librarians ................................... 125
Anne Shelley, Illinois State University, USA

Chapter 10
Contrasting Professional Development and Continuing Education Opportunities for Library Professionals: Offerings Both within and Outside the Profession......................................................... 144
Agnes K. Bradshaw, University of North Carolina – Greensboro, USA

Chapter 11
Professional Development Needs and Resources for Government Document Librarians ............... 163
Susanne Caro, University of Montana, USA

Chapter 12
A Perfect Match: Partnering with Education Faculty for Pedagogical Professional Development.... 180
Hilary Kraus, Johnson & Wales University, USA
Rudolf V. Kraus II, Rhode Island College, USA

Chapter 13
Leveling the Professional Development Playing Field: Opportunities and Challenges in Providing Knowledge, Skill Building and Targeted Programming for Tribal College Librarians and Other Underserved Library Professionals................................................................. 196
James Thull, Montana State University, USA
Mary Anne Hansen, Montana State University, USA

Chapter 14
Professional Development Opportunities Provided by Consortia: What We Can Learn from this Model ................................................................................................................................. 209
Tami Echavarria Robinson, Whitworth University, USA

Chapter 15
Shifting to a Needs-Based Continuing Education Model ................................................................. 230
Tom Taylor, South Central Kansas Library System, USA
Chapter 16
Assessing a Statewide Professional Development Effort ................................................................. 241
   Michael A. Crumpton, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, USA

Chapter 17
Library Associations, Conferences, and Professional Development ............................................. 262
   Samantha Schmehl Hines, University of Montana-Missoula College, USA

Compilation of References .................................................................................................................. 275

Related References ............................................................................................................................. 290

About the Contributors ......................................................................................................................... 313

Index .................................................................................................................................................... 317