Acknowledgment

My wife, Fatima, and my sons, Amine, Ouassim, and Tarik, are directly recognized for their input to this book through allowing me to pursue the tasks of research while providing the best conditions for my comfort and creativity. At the same time, I address my sincere recognition to my mother, brothers, and sisters for their unconditional support.

I also want to acknowledge the continuous support of the President of Al Akhawayn, University Professor Driss Ouauicha, and the Vice-President for Academic Affairs, Professor Ahmed Legrouiri.

My deep thanks go to the Foundation of the Mediterranean Institutes of Economic Sciences (FEMISE). Special acknowledgements are addressed to Professor Jean Louis Reiffers, Dr. Frederic Blanc, and Dr. Maryse Louis.

This recognition goes also to IGI, who encouraged me to pursue this project under the continuous help and monitoring of Mr. Austin DeMarco.

This work could not be achieved without the input from my colleagues and FEMISE collaborators to the research project FEM-34-07. I can cite here the example of Ms. Nada Zouag from the IEAPS, Professors Cristina Boboc and Emilia Titan from the University of Bucharest, and Ahmad Baijou, Andrès Rodriguez, and Ahlam Fakhar from Al Akhawayn University, Ifrane, Morocco. I also recognize the contributions of Ms. Nada Zouag, Ms. Molk Kadiri, Mrs. Amale Achehboune, and Mr. Youssef Chetioui for their continuations of research beyond FEM-34-07.

The contributions of different reviewers of the full manuscript and those selected for individual chapters are highly appreciated. These include the anonymous referees and the contributions of the members of the Editorial Advisory Board for this book.

There are also several people that helped with the different stages of the editing and reviewing processes. These include Ms. Nesrine Ouriaghli, Ms. Lamiaa Bargach, and Amine Driouchi.

All these contributors are acknowledged here, and their excellent accomplishments well recognized. I thank each one of the above contributors for their confidence and for their generous input. All the mistakes and inconsistencies introduced while working on this book are my responsibility as book editor.
