Acknowledgment

Gratitude can be felt deep inside the heart and is beyond description. Thanks are poor expression of debt, of the gratitude one feels, yet there is no better way to express it. Throughout the one year it took to complete this book, the book demanded constant attention and support from other professionals. Therefore, we would like to express our gratitude to the people who made it possible.

It is a privilege of the editors to express our heart-felt gratitude for the assistance and support in the compilation of this book. We are grateful to the members of our Editorial Advisory Board. Thanks also go to our dedicated team of reviewers for their expertise and time in polishing the manuscript.

It is our profound privilege to express gratitude from the core of hearts to Professor Jaideep Sharma for his unconditional and precious guidance, constant encouragement, and whole-hearted assistance throughout the process of completing this book.

Our cordial thanks to IGI Global for providing us the opportunity to publish the book. We especially express our thanks to Christine Smith, Development Editor, and team members for this project, for their invaluable assistance, guidance, and patience throughout this entire process.

We are thankful to all those who have helped us directly and indirectly during the course of the project, whose names could not be mentioned here but will always in our hearts.
