Table of Contents

Foreword .................................................................................................................................................. xv

Preface .................................................................................................................................................... xvii

Acknowledgment ................................................................................................................................... xxi

Chapter 1
Scaffolding to Support English Language Learners in a Kindergarten Classroom ......................... 1
   Luciana C. de Oliveira, Teachers College, Columbia University, USA
   Marshall Klassen, Purdue University, USA
   Alsu Gilmetdinova, Purdue University, USA

Chapter 2
Innovative Ideas for Tutoring and Mentoring Young English Learners .......................................... 17
   Kim Stevens Barker, Georgia State University, USA

Chapter 3
The Effect of New Environments on Children’s Language Ability: A Case Study ............................ 32
   Ursula Thomas, Georgia Perimeter College, USA

Chapter 4
Using Literacy Response Activities with Early Childhood English Language Learners and Immigrant Students .................................................. 50
   Erin M. Casey, University of Arkansas, USA

Chapter 5
Building on What They Bring: Special Considerations when Working with Young Immigrant Students in Mathematics .......................................................... 67
   Anita Bright, Portland State University, USA
   Michael Ames Connor, Portland State University, USA

Chapter 6
Supporting Emergent Bilinguals through Linguistically Appropriate Instruction ........................ 85
   Colleen Gallagher, University of Dayton, USA
Chapter 7
Mathematics Acquisition and Immigrant Children ................................................................. 103
   Judi Simmons Estes, Park University, USA
   Dong Hwa Choi, Park University, USA

Chapter 8
Effective Teaching Practices for Academic Literacy Development of Young Immigrant
Learners ................................................................................................................................. 129
   Cate Crosby, University of Cincinnati, USA

Chapter 9
“I’m Not from the Dominant Culture!” Instructional Practices for Teachers of Culturally Diverse
Students.............................................................................................................................. 144
   Joan Oigawa Aus, Valley City State University, USA

Chapter 10
Transnational Immigration and Family Context: What Teachers Should Know ................... 162
   Afra Ahmed Hersi, Loyola University Maryland, USA

Chapter 11
Living on the Fringe: Immigration and English Language Learners in Appalachian Ohio.......... 175
   Joy Cowdery, Muskingum University, USA

Chapter 12
Crossing Borders toward Young Transnational Lives ............................................................ 200
   G. Sue Kasun, Utah State University, USA
   Cinthya M. Saavedra, Utah State University, USA

Chapter 13
Students on the Rise: Learning with Immigrant Youth in Out-of-School Spaces of Community
Activism ................................................................................................................................ 217
   Elizabeth Bishop, University of Pittsburgh, USA

Chapter 14
Preparing Teachers to be Effective in Cross-Cultural Learning Environments ......................... 236
   Grace Onchwari, University of North Dakota, USA

Chapter 15
Multicultural Curricular Frameworks for Preservice Teachers ............................................. 247
   Anita Rao Mysore, Indus Training and Research Institute (ITARI), India

Chapter 16
Protective Factors Immigrant Children Bring to the Classroom ............................................. 265
   Jacqueline Onchwari, University of Minnesota – Duluth, USA
Chapter 17
Using Technology to Address the Challenges to Effective Assessment of Young Learners who are Immigrants

Esther Ntuli, Idaho State University, USA
Arnold Nyarambi, East Tennessee State University, USA

Compilation of References

About the Contributors

Index