Table of Contents

Foreword .............................................................................................................................................. xv
Preface ............................................................................................................................................. xviii
Acknowledgment ............................................................................................................................ xxviii

Section 1
Historical, Theoretical, and Conceptual Perspectives on Digital Communication

Chapter 1
Digital Rhetoric and Globalization: A Convergence-Continuum Model .............................................. 1
Gustav Verhulsdonck, University of Texas at El Paso, USA

Chapter 2
Engagement Design: Toward a Holistic Model for Digital Communication Design ......................... 41
Curtis R. Newbold, Westminster College, USA

Chapter 3
Toward an Algorithmic Rhetoric ..................................................................................................... 62
Chris Ingraham, University of Colorado at Boulder, USA

Chapter 4
Decoding What is Good in Code: Toward a Metaphysical Ethics of Unicode ..................................... 80
Jennifer Helene Maher, University of Maryland, Baltimore County, USA

Chapter 5
The Data Machine: Identification in the Age of Data Mining .......................................................... 97
Nicholas A. Hanford, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, USA

Chapter 6
The Persuasive Language of Action: Interaction in the Digital Age ............................................. 113
Martin van Velsen, Carnegie Mellon University, USA
Section 2
Practices of Digital Communication across Cultures in Digital and Global Contexts

Chapter 7
Digital and Global Literacies in Networked Communities: Epistemic Shifts and Communication Practices in the Cloud Era..................................................................................................................131

Marohang Limbu, Michigan State University, USA

Chapter 8
Developing Intercultural Competence through Glocal Activity Theory Using the Connect-Exchange Study Abroad App ..........................................................................................................................154

Rich Rice, Texas Tech University, USA
Ben Lauren, Florida International University, USA

Chapter 9
Inviting Citizen Designers to Design Digital Interface for the Democratization of Web Online Environments ..........................................................................................................................174

Rajendra Kumar Panthee, University of Texas at El Paso, USA

Chapter 10
Social Media in an Intercultural Writing Context: Creating Spaces for Student Negotiations........191

Mª Pilar Milagros García, Koç University, Turkey

Chapter 11
Digital Literacy Instruction in Afghanistan ..................................................................................209

Mike Edwards, Washington State University, USA

Section 3
Emerging Digital Communication in Digital and Global Contexts

Chapter 12
Considering Chronos and Kairos in Digital Media Rhetorics ..................................................227

Ashley Rose Kelly, Purdue University, USA
Meagan Kittle Autry, North Carolina State University, USA
Brad Mehlenbacher, North Carolina State University, USA

Chapter 13
A Match Made in “Outer Heaven:” The Digital Age Vis-à-Vis the Bomb in Guns of the Patriots....248

Jorge Gomez, University of Texas at El Paso, USA

Chapter 14
“A Genuine Moment of Liberation for Me:” Digital Introductions as Powerful Learning........283

Julie Faulkner, Monash University, Australia
Chapter 15
On the Condition of Anonymity: Disembodied Exhibitionism and Oblique Trolling Strategies......296
  Demetrios Jason Lallas, Union County College, USA

Chapter 16
  Nonny de la Peña, University of Southern California, USA

Compilation of References ............................................................................................................328

About the Contributors ....................................................................................................................360

Index ................................................................................................................................................366