Acknowledgment

The editors would like to thank all who have been involved in the preparation and development process of the book. Without their support, this book could not have been completed.

Special thanks to the authors of chapters for their outstanding contributions to this project. Also, we deeply appreciate most of the authors who participated in the review process as referees and provided constructive and comprehensive reviews of the book chapters, which were essential to improve the quality of the book.

Great appreciation to Dr. John Cook for accepting our invitation to contribute with his knowledge to the foreword of this book.

We are also very grateful to the Computer Science Department of the Open University of Catalonia for their continuous support and provision of resources to our research activities.

We do not want to close without acknowledging the help of the staff at IGI Global, whose assistance during the whole edition process has been invaluable. Special thanks to Tyler Heath, Rebecca Beistline, and Jan Travers for their vigilance on keeping the book edition on schedule. We finally would like to thank Kristin Klinger and Lindsay Johnston for their invitation and motivation to start and perform the first steps of this project.

This work has been partially supported by the Spanish MCYT project TIN2008-01288/TSI. Fatos Xhafa’s work is partially done at Birkbeck, University of London, on Leave from Technical University of Catalonia (Barcelona, Spain).
