Table of Contents

Preface ................................................................................................................................................. xvii

Section 1
Assessing Corporate Narratives

Chapter 1
Fund Manager Overconfidence and Investment Narratives ............................................................... 1
Arman Eshraghi, University of Edinburgh, UK

Chapter 2
Entrepreneurial Rhetoric and Business Plan Funding ................................................................. 21
Thomas H. Allison, University of Oklahoma, USA
Aaron F. McKenny, University of Oklahoma, USA
Jeremy C. Short, University of Oklahoma, USA

Chapter 3
Measuring the Tone of Accounting and Financial Narrative ....................................................... 36
Elaine Henry, Fordham University, USA
Andrew J. Leone, University of Miami, USA

Section 2
Judging CEO Credibility

Chapter 4
The Impact of CEO Charismatic Rhetoric on Firm Performance ............................................. 49
J. Christian Broberg, Wichita State University, USA

Chapter 5
Exploring Signs of Hubris in CEO Language ............................................................................. 69
Russell Craig, Victoria University, Australia
Joel Amernic, University of Toronto, Canada
Chapter 6
Image Restoration and the Management of Reputation ......................................................... 89
Philip Linsley, University of York, UK
Richard Slack, Durham University, UK
Alan Edkins, University of York, UK

Section 3
Calculating Earnings Dynamics

Chapter 7
Linguistic Certainty in Managerial Announcements ............................................................. 109
Elizabeth Demers, University of Virginia, USA
Julia Yu, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore

Chapter 8
A Review of Textual Analysis in Economics and Finance .................................................. 122
Carissa L. Tudor, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, USA
Clara Vega, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, USA

Chapter 9
Optimal Portfolio Construction Using Qualitative and Quantitative Signals ................... 140
Ronen Feldman, Hebrew University, Israel
Suresh Govindaraj, Rutgers University, USA
Sangsang Liu, Rutgers University, USA
Joshua Livnat, New York University, USA

Section 4
Capturing Shareholders’ Perceptions

Chapter 10
Managerial Disclosures and Corporate Control ................................................................. 163
Neveen Abdelrehim, University of York, UK, & Port Said University, Egypt

Chapter 11
Corporate Persona and Optimistic Language in Annual Reports ..................................... 179
Samuel A. Nelson, University of Nebraska – Lincoln, USA
Liang “Lucas” Wang, Western University, Canada
Ronda M. Smith, Fort Hays State University, USA
Ben Blackford, Northwest Missouri State University, USA

Chapter 12
Executives’ Use of Emotional Language and Investor Reactions ..................................... 198
Wei Guo, Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hong Kong
Section 5
Gauging Corporate Responsibility

Chapter 13
Environmental Disclosures and Impression Management ................................................................. 217
  Charles H. Cho, ESSEC Business School, France
  Den M. Patten, Illinois State University, USA
  Robin W. Roberts, University of Central Florida, USA

Chapter 14
Negotiating Corporate Social Responsibility Reporting ................................................................. 232
  Janet Luft Mobus, Pacific Lutheran University, USA

Chapter 15
Disclosure Alignment and Transparency Signaling in CSR Reports ................................................. 249
  Craig E. Carroll, New York University, USA
  Sabine A. Einwiller, Johannes Gutenberg University, Germany

Section 6
Investigating Adverse Events

Chapter 16
The Content of IMF Staff Reports for Euro Area Countries ............................................................... 272
  Lena Golubovskaja, National University of Ireland, Ireland

Chapter 17
The Global Financial Crisis and Central Bank Speak ........................................................................ 293
  Pierre L. Siklos, Wilfrid Laurier University, Canada

Chapter 18
Fraud Detection and Corporate Filings .......................................................................................... 315
  Sunita Goel, Siena College, USA

Section 7
Reactions

Chapter 19
From Words to Integers and Beyond in Corporate Life ................................................................. 334
  Boris Kabanoff, Queensland University of Technology, Australia
  Mahani Hamdan, Universiti Brunei Darussalam, Brunei