Table of Contents

Forward ...................................................................................................................................................... xviii

Preface ........................................................................................................................................................... xxii

Acknowledgment ......................................................................................................................................... xxx

Section 1

Cultural Product: Management

Chapter 1
The Cultural Product: Integration and Relational Approach ................................................................. 1
   Lucia Aiello, Universitas Mercatorum, Italy
   Claudia Cacia, University of Salerno, Italy

Chapter 2
Cultural Product Management from Environment to Territorial Context: Configuration of the Main Relationships ......................................................................................................................... 22
   Maria Antonella Ferri, Universitas Mercatorum, Italy
   Gandolfo Dominici, University of Palermo, Italy
   Gianpaolo Basile, University of Salerno, Italy
   Lucia Aiello, Universitas Mercatorum, Italy

Chapter 3
The Cultural Relationship Management: Case Study “Sassi of Matera” ..................................................... 41
   Lucia Aiello, Universitas Mercatorum, Italy
   Salvatore Ferri, University of Naples “Parthenope,” Italy

Chapter 4
Resource Integration and Value Co-Creation in Cultural Heritage Management ......................................... 58
   Sergio Barile, Sapienza University of Rome
   Marialuisa Saviano, University of Salerno, Italy
Chapter 5
The Assessment of Cultural Experience through the Measurement of Cross-Cutting Skills:
The Giffoni Experience Case Study.................................................................................................. 83
   Carmen Gallucci, University of Salerno, Italy
   Piera Bellelli, University of Salerno, Italy
   Giuliana Saccà, University of Sannio, Italy
   Felice Addeo, University of Salerno, Italy

Chapter 6
Cultural Sponsorship and Entrepreneurial Mistrust............................................................................ 113
   Fabio Severino, University of Rome La Sapienza, Italy

Chapter 7
The Relationships between Cultural Institutions and Companies: From Donations to Strategic Partnerships......................................................................................................................................... 126
   Alfonso Siano, University of Salerno, Italy
   Mario Siglioccolo, University of Salerno, Italy
   Carmela Tuccillo, University of Salerno, Italy
   Francesca Conte, University of Salerno, Italy

Chapter 8
Museum Communication: Towards a Framework for Resource-Holder Relations Management ...... 151
   Alfonso Siano, University of Salerno, Italy
   Mario Siglioccolo, University of Salerno, Italy
   Carmela Tuccillo, University of Salerno, Italy
   Francesca Conte, University of Salerno, Italy

Section 2
Cultural Product: Internet Perspective

Chapter 9
Digital Resources and Approaches Adopted by User-Centred Museums: The Growing Impact of the Internet and Social Media........................................................................................................ 181
   Ludovico Solima, Second University of Naples, Italy

Chapter 10
Open, User, and Smart Innovation in Cultural Firms ........................................................................ 200
   Valentina Della Corte, University Federico II of Naples, Italy
Chapter 11
The Culture on the Palm of Your Hand: How to Design a User Oriented Mobile App for Museums .............................................................................................................................................225

Federica Palumbo, Business Systems Laboratory, Italy & Sapienza University of Rome, Italy
Gandolfo Dominici, Business Systems Laboratory, Italy & University of Palermo, Italy
Gianpaolo Basile, Business Systems Laboratory, Italy & University of Salerno, Italy

Chapter 12
From Accounting to Accountability at the Virtual Museums in Pompeii and Herculaneum:
The Role of ICT and Social Reporting towards the Financial Sustainability of Archaeological Heritage Conservation and Usability over Time.............................................................................................................................................245

Paolo Esposito, University of Piemonte Orientale, Italy

Chapter 13
Reconciling Social Media with Luxury Fashion Brands: An Exploratory Study...............................257

Wilson Ozuem, University of Gloucestershire, UK
Kerri Tan, University of Wales, UK

Section 3
Cultural Product: Accessible Perspective

Chapter 14
A Business Model for Accessible Tourism..........................................................................................................................................................287

Maria Antonella Ferri, Universitas Mercatorum, Italy

Chapter 15
Web 2.0 Model in Cultural Organization: Case Study Peepul..........................................................................................................................................................303

Lucia Aiello, Universitas Mercatorum, Italy

Chapter 16
The Disability Marketing and the Cultural “Product”: Italian Experience and Propositions for International Contexts..........................................................................................................................................................321

Guido Migliaccio, University of Sannio, Italy

Section 4
Cultural Product: Tourism Perspective

Chapter 17
A New Frontier in the Satisfaction of the Cultural Tourist: The QR Code ..................................................348

Giuseppe Tardivo, University of Turin, Italy
Angela Scilla, University of Turin, Italy
Milena Viassone, University of Turin, Italy