Acknowledgment

The author of this text would like to acknowledge the help of all involved in the process of writing, editing, and revising this text. Without the help of many individuals, this project could not have been completed.

Sincere appreciation must first and foremost go to my mother for her eternal support of my ideas, work, and new adventures. Without a lifetime of her encouragement, I would not be where I am today. I must also acknowledge my husband for all of his enthusiasm and interest at the correct moments. I am eternally grateful for his patience while I was deeply engrossed in this project. No work of mine would ever go without the acknowledgement of Dr. Tamara Girardi for her motivation, keen eye for revisions, and positive attitude towards my work.

Special thanks also go to the publishing team at IGI Global, whose contributions were significant throughout the whole process. It has been a pleasure working with all of you. In particular, to Austin DeMarco, who assisted with all parts of this development and supported my project and timeframe.

Thank you to all.
