The motivation to write this research book came primarily as part of my PhD studies conducted at the Royal Melbourne Institution of Technology University, Australia. My senior supervisor, Professor Tony Naughton, stimulated the research idea. Dr. Timothy Bogomolov, Dr. Vikash Ramiah, Dr. Sivagowry Sriananthakumar, Dr. Alberto Posso, Dr. Silvia Zia Islam, Professor Tim Fry, Professor Heather Mitchell, Dr. Ian MacLean, and Professor Fuming Jiang enriched this work by providing their generous advice, insightful comments, and guidance to assist completion of the study. Carrying out this research was a fascinating journey, and the completed study would not have been possible without the sound advice, stimulation, significant efforts, and support from the people around me.

I also wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to my husband, Professor Jiang Fuming, for his continuous support that has enabled me to explore my potential by doing this research. He has been my mentor in my study, my work, and my life. Our lovely nine-year-old son, Jiang Huiyuan, fondly known as Xinxin, has also witnessed my journey. Xinxin’s presence has always been inspirational as I accomplished this task.

Special thanks to IGI Global publishing house for their efforts to ensure this research book came to fruition. Acknowledgment is given to Sally Asnicar of Full Proofreading Services for her professional editing and proofreading services.
