Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................xvi

Section 1
Discussing the Philosophical, Sociological, and Cultural Dimensions

Chapter 1
Foundations of Interreligious Dialogue ................................................................. 1
   Henri Atlan, Université de Paris VI, France & Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

Chapter 2
Border Crossings: Secular versus Religious Arguments in the Public Domain .............. 16
   Ian Linden, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, UK

Chapter 3
Transculturality and the Included Third ................................................................. 29
   Patrick Imbert, University of Ottawa, Canada

Section 2
Media Representations of Religions and the Religious

Chapter 4
Religious Sphere in Canada: Public Manifestations and Media Representations ............ 48
   Mahmoud Eid, University of Ottawa, Canada

Chapter 5
Is Religion Compatible with Media Entertainment? .................................................. 66
   Guy Marchessault, Saint Paul University, Canada
Section 3
Religions in Cyberspace:
Between Convergence and Conflict

Chapter 6
An Exercise in Inter-Religious Conceptualization: Towards Online Creative Conversations .......... 82
Pierre Lévy, University of Ottawa, Canada

Chapter 7
Cult Wars on the Internet: Virtual Battles and the Challenges of Cyberspace................................. 99
Susan Palmer, Dawson College, Canada

Section 4
Fostering Dialogue and Cooperation:
Barriers and Opportunities

Chapter 8
Public Relations and Religious Diversity: Toward the Common Good ........................................ 110
Donn James Tilson, University of Miami, USA

Chapter 9
All in the Family: How Should Religion Communicators Understand Relationships When Conflicts Arise? ................................................................................................................................................... 129
Douglas F. Cannon, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, USA

Chapter 10
Media Narratives of the Interactions between Religions and Cultures in Canada .............................. 161
Richelle R. Wiseman, LACUNA Group International, Canada & USA

Section 5
Normative Conversations on Religion and Culture in the Public Sphere

Chapter 11
Media Policy, Co-Existence, and Freedom of Speech ........................................................................ 176
Ronald I. Cohen, Canadian Broadcast Standards Council, Canada

Chapter 12
Blasphemy and Outrage in a Secular State: Venezuela’s Illegitimate Restrictions to Speech Based on a Republican Religion ............................................................................................................. 191
Néstor Luis Garrido, Universidad Católica Andrés Bello, Venezuela
Section 6
Religious Dialogues in the Arts and Popular Culture

Chapter 13
Capillitas: Religion, Communication, and Syncretism in Small Roadside Communities in Venezuela

José Enrique Finol, Universidad del Zulia, Venezuela
David Enrique Finol, Universidad Católica Cecilio Acosta, Venezuela

Chapter 14
Cultural and Religious Dialogue: A Legacy of Religious Art

Judith E. Dietz, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, Canada

Afterword

Related References

Compilation of References

About the Contributors

Index