Acknowledgment

I am indebted to the many people who helped in many ways to put this edited book together. Particularly, I am deeply appreciative of the assistance of a number of people at IGI Global. Without their dedicated guidance and feedback, this book would not have been completed successfully. First and foremost, Kristin M. Roth, Development Editor at IGI helped me stay on track and gave many positive feedbacks during the development stage. Julia Mosemann was instrumental in finding answers to-day-day problems related to the book project.

I would also like to thank the editorial advisory board team who gave their valuable time, effort, and counsel to improve the final product, and they are:

- Professor Ari-Veikko Anttiroiko, University of Tampere, Finland
- Professor Adeyemi A. Adekoya, Computer Information Systems, Virginia State University
- Dr. Ljiljana Brankovic, Faculty of Engineering, The University of Newcastle, Australia
- Professor Floriana Esposito, Dipartimento di Informatica, Universita’ di Bari, Italy
- Professor Marc Holzer, Dean, School of Public Affairs, Rutgers University, Newark New Jersey
- Dr. Paul Henman, The University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia
- Dr. Stephen Marsh, Research Scientist, Information Security NRC, Inst. for Information Technology, Toronto Canada
- Professor Emmanuel Omojokun, Department of Computer Information Systems, Virginia State University, USA

The following reviewers are thanked for their hard work, dedication, and for their meticulous reviews and comments to the authors. Without their constructive suggestions, the overall quality of the book would not have reached its potential for contribution in this field. The reviewers include:
