First and foremost, we thank our authors and reviewers. We thank our authors for their outstanding contributions. They were a real pleasure to work with! We are equally grateful to those who helped with the collaboration and blind review process, without whom we would not have achieved a book of this caliber. Among the reviewers were many of the authors of chapters, who expertly served as referees for articles written by other authors. But our special thanks for reviewing go to our colleagues who gave unstintingly of their knowledge and time to provide constructive and comprehensive feedback. They include:

David Arentsen, LIM College and Baruch College
Karen Mallia, University of South Carolina
Maureen C. Minielli, Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis
Len Presby, William Paterson University
Milda Yildiz, William Paterson University

We would also like to thank our editor Kristin Roth for her efficiency and generosity in working with us, and the publishing team at Idea Group Inc. for their competence and expertise. Finally, we are grateful for the understanding and support of our partners who helped us survive this process, and to our canine and feline menageries for grounding us in reality by being their own unforgettable selves.
