About the Contributors

Özlem Olgu joined Koç University as an Assistant Professor in Accounting and Finance in September 2007 after completing her MSc Finance and PhD Finance degrees at the University of Leicester. She completed her undergraduate degree in Banking and Finance at the Near East University, Cyprus, and was awarded a scholarship to continue her studies to Master’s level. Prior to joining Koç University she worked as a lecturer in finance at the University of Hertfordshire. Her research interests and publication record cover a range of banking topics. Most recently, the focus has been on production theory, investigating the efficiency and productivity levels of European banking and transition economies, together with a more in-depth analysis of Turkey. In particular, she is interested in dealing with the economies-of-scale effects on performance measurement as well as the effects of macroeconomic factors on productivity growth.

Hasan Dinçer is an associate professor at Istanbul Medipol University, Turkey. Dr. Dinçer has BAs in Financial Markets and Investment Management at Marmara University. He received PhD in Finance and Banking with his thesis entitled “The Effect of Changes on the Competitive Strategies of New Service Development in the Banking Sector.” He has work experience in the finance sector as portfolio specialist, and his major academic studies focus on financial instruments, performance evaluation, and economics. He is the executive editor of International Journal of Finance and Banking Studies (IJFBS) and a founding member of the Society for the Study of Business and Finance (SSBF).

Ümit Hacıoğlu is an associate professor at Istanbul Medipol University, Turkey. Dr. Hacıoğlu has BAs in Business Administration and International Relations (2002). He received PhD in Finance and Banking with his thesis entitled “Effects of Conflict on Equity Performance.” Finance and banking, strategic management, and international political economy are the main pillars of his interdisciplinary studies. He is the executive editor of International Journal of Research in Business and Social Science (IJRBS) and a founding member of the Society for the Study of Business and Finance (SSBF).

***

Zühal Akca, following her undergraduate study of Labour Economics and Industrial Relations, has pursued her educational life as a graduate student of Business Management. She is doing her dissertation study on Post Public Offering Performance Analysis with Balanced Scorecard Performance Management System and an Application: Performance Analysis of Companies in The Food Sector that are being traded at the BIST. She is pursuing her professional career as a Director in the field of Human Resources and Corporate Development.
About the Contributors

Veli Akel is an Associate Professor of Finance at Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences in Erciyes University, Kayseri, Turkey. Assoc. Prof. Akel teaches Capital Markets, International Finance, Portfolio Management, Corporate Finance and related courses. He received the B.S. degree in Business Administration, Erciyes University, 1998, M.S. degree in Finance, Anadolu University, 2001, and PhD degree in Finance, Erciyes University, 2006. His main research areas focus on financial contagion, neural networks, institutional investor and capital markets.

Görkem Bahtiyar is a research assistant and PhD candidate in the field of Economics in Uludag University, Bursa, Turkey. He graduated as a high honor student in 2007. He acquired his Master’s degree in Economics from the same university and was the recipient of a scholarship of Tubitak’s Bideb program in 2010. His Master’s thesis title was “Economic Growth-Income Distribution Relationship: The Case of Turkey.” His fields of study and areas of interest include economic crises, income distribution, financialisation, schools of thought in economics, economic history (15th-18th centuries, especially), and post-Keynesian institutionalism.

Toni Bakhtiar was born in Tuban, Indonesia, in 1972. He obtained a sarjana sains degree in mathematics in 1996 from Bogor Agricultural University, Indonesia, an M.Sc. degree in technical mathematics in 2000 from Delft University of Technology, the Netherlands, and a Ph.D. degree in information science in 2006 from the University of Tokyo, Japan. Dr. Bakhtiar is currently a senior lecturer at Department of Mathematics, Bogor Agricultural University, Indonesia, and a research fellow at International Center for Applied Finance and Economics (Intercafe). His research interest includes operation research, optimal control, mathematical modeling and computational aspect in economics. Dr. Bakhtiar is a member of Indonesian Mathematical Society.

Hasan Bakır is affiliated as a research assistant at the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences of Uludağ University in Bursa/Turkey. He graduated with a bachelor’s degree in economics department of same university. He is a doctoral degree student in economy program. His current research is focused on fields of political economy, macroeconomy and labour markets.

Azizul Baten is a Visiting Associate Professor, currently employed at the School of Quantitative Sciences, Universiti Utara Malaysia. Previously, he was a Professor in Statistics at Shahjalal University of Science and Technology, Bangladesh. He completed his Master of Science in Statistics from University of Dhaka, Bangladesh, Ph.D. in Statistics from Jahangirnagar University, Bangladesh and Post-Doctorate in Operational Research at University Sains Malaysia. Dr. Baten published over 115 research works including 87 Journal articles, 30 Conference Proceedings and 3 book chapters/books. He has more than 19 years of teaching experience in both graduate and postgraduate levels. He is the Editor-in-Chief in World Research Journal of Fuzzy Systems, Journal of Statistics and Mathematics and Associate Editor & the Member of the Editorial Board for the several Journals. Dr. Baten is also an Expert member for Professor Selection, Gomal University, Pakistan and a Ph.D. External examiner of Hazara University, Pakistan.
About the Contributors

Murat Cetin is an Associate Professor of Economic Development at Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences in Namık Kemal University, Tekirdağ, Turkey. Assoc. Prof. Cetin teaches Economic Growth and Development, Macroeconomics, Monetary Policy related courses. He received the B.S. degree in Economics Karadeniz Teknik University, 1994, M.S. degree in Economics, Karadeniz Teknik University, 1996, and PhD degree in Economics Karadeniz Teknik University, 2000. His main research areas focus on growth economics, energy economics, time-series and panel data analyses.

Levent Çitak is an Associate Professor of Finance at the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences in Erciyes University, Kayseri, Turkey. Assoc. Prof. Çitak teaches Corporate Finance, Financial Management and Investment Project Analysis. He received B.S. degree in Business Administration from Erciyes University in 1993, M.BA. with a major in Financial Management from Pace University, NY, USA in 1997, and PhD degree from Dumlupınar University in 2003. He has published papers in academic journals on corporate governance, determinants of financial performance, market efficiency.

Tolga Demirbaş is an Associate Professor at Uludağ University in Turkey. He graduated from the Department of Public Finance of the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences of Uludağ University. His research areas include Turkish budget system, government auditing and e-government.

Ercan Dulgeroğlu graduated from the Istanbul University, Faculty of Economics in 1968. He completed his doctorate in economics in 1976 at the same Faculty. Between 1971-1976 years, he worked in The Bursa Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI) as an economist and a research specialist. In 1976, He has begun to work at the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences in the University of Bursa, as an Dr.Assistant. After 1985, he continued to lecture on development economics and international economics as an associate professor at The Department of economics in Uludağ University, then became a professor in 1991. He also served as an Assistant Dean of the Economics and Administrative Sciences Faculty, and as a director of The Institute of Social Sciences. Dulgeroğlu has published in Bursa economy-related researchs and he also has master’s and PhD courses at Uludağ University, Institute of Social Sciences nowadays (2014).

Seyfettin Erdoğan was born in Ağrı in 1969. He graduated from Gazi University Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Department of Labor Economics in 1992. In 1993, he started working as a research assistant in Kahramanmaraş Sütçü İmam University Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Economics Department. In the same year, he started his masters in Economics in Marmara University Social Sciences Institute Economic Policy Department. After he graduated from M.A, he continued his education with ph.D. He got ph.D degree in 1999. In the same year, he started working as assistant profesor in Kocaeli University, faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Department of Economics. He became associate profesor in 2005 and profesor in 2011. Currently, the author has been working as profesor at Istanbul Medeniyet University, Faculty of Political Sciences, Department of Economics. He has been the Dean of Tourism Faculty, member of board of directors and member of senate since 2012. The author has many articals both in national and international journals. He also took part in both national and international journals as referee. He also participated in different congresses and projects.
Kadir Y. Eryigit graduated from the Uludağ University, faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences in 1999. He completed his doctorate thesis title “Exchange Rate Behaviour, alternative Models: Evidence from Turkey” in 2008 at the same faculty. Between 2000-2011 years, he worked at Department of Econometrics, Uludağ University as a research assistant. He has been working as Associate Professor at the same department and he has also under and post graduated courses at Uludağ University nowadays. Kadir Y. Eryigit works at multivariate time series analyses, cointegration, spatial econometrics, international monetary economics and regulatory issues in economics, and his presentations and published works cover these areas well.

Sibel Bali Eryiğit graduated from the Uludağ University, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Department of Business Administration in 2000. She received her PhD from the Uludağ University, Institute of Social Sciences and the topic of her thesis was “The Institutional of Determinants of Financial Development: A Cross-Country Analysis”. Bali Eryigit works at Uludağ University, Department of Economics as a Dr. Assistant. The research interests of Bali Eryigid research interests are institutional economics, financial development, economic growth, monetary economics, defense economics and demographic economics, and her presentations, projects and published works cover these areas as well.

Filiz Eryılmaz is affiliated as a research assistant at the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences of Uludağ University in Bursa/Turkey. She graduated with a bachelor’s degree in economics department of same university. She holds a Ph.D. degree from Uludağ University. Her current research is focused on fields of new political economy, political business cycles, macroeconomy and financial economy.

Ayfer Gёdikli was born in 1970. She graduated from İnönü University, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Department of Management in 1998. After she graduated from Masters in Management in Fatih University, she started ph.D. in Fiscal Economics at Marmara University Social Sciences Institute in 2003. In the same period, she worked as lecturer at Fatih University. After she got her ph.D degree, she started working at Kırklareli University, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Department of Economics in 2009. She worked as head of Economics Department and Deputy Dean until 2012. She became associate professor in 2014. Currently, the author has been working as associate professor at Istanbul Medeniyet University, Faculty of Political Sciences, Department of Economics. She has been also Vice Head of Department of Public Finance since 2013. The author has many articals both in national and international journals. She was board member of Journal of Kırklareli University Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences until 2012. She also participated in many national and international congresses and projects both as participant or a member of organising team. Her interest areas are globalisation, financial crisis and poverty.

Adnan Gerçek has Ph.D. of Fiscal Law at Uludağ University Social Science Institute. He is Professor in Public Finance Department at the Uludağ University. His research areas include Turkish tax system, tax administration, tax collection procedure, taxpayers’ rights, tax responsibility and discretionary power of tax administration.
Filiz Giray is a Professor at Uludağ University in Turkey. In 1999/2000, she conducted research in the Commerce Department Business School at Murdoch University in Western Australia. In 2009/2010, she did researched in Wisconsin University in USA on Knowledge Economy. Her current research areas are telecommunications, Tax competition, and knowledge in digital market.

Aytac Gokmen is a doctor of business. His field of interest is international business, international management and international economics as well as has various national and international publications on these subjects. He began his career in the International Trade Department of the Çankaya University which is located in Ankara, Turkey in 2005 as a research assistant. He currently works in the same department as a teaching and research staff.

Burcu Hacoglu was a lecturer at Beykent University, Istanbul-Turkey. She has BAs in Business Administration-Economy at Istanbul Bilgi University and MBA degree from Kadir Has University. Strategic Management and Organizational are the main pillars of her academic studies.

Osarumwense Iguisi lectures on HRM and Behavioural Sciences at the University of Benin, Benin City, Nigeria and holds the Chair of Cross-Cultural Management at the Euro-African Management Research Centre, UK. Between 2008 – 2013, He was elected Public Governor for Brentwood Community at Basildon and Thurrock University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust where he represented the social interests and wellbeing of the Brentwood communities. Osarumwense Iguisi is the founder and chairman of Scottish Ethnic Minority Resources Centre based in Stirling-Scotland, UK and serve on the boards of Essex Black and Ethnic Minority Research Centre based in Brentwood, UK, and on the board of Euro-African Capacity Development Centre based in Romford, UK. Osarumwense Iguisi holds a BSc degree in Building Construction, Master’s degree in General Management with emphasis on Cross-Cultural Management and a Doctorate degree in Management with research focused on “Cultural Dynamics in Management Practice.

Hatice İpek completed her undergraduate degree in Economics at Middle East Technical University in 2010. After completing her undergraduate degree, she qualified for full scholarship at Koc University MA Program in Economics. Her research interests include a range of banking topics. Her master thesis, in particular, was titled as “Evaluating the Technical Efficiency of Turkish Deposit Banks: An Application of DEA and Panel Data Regression”. She, throughout her master program, tried to understand impact of major macroeconomic and regulatory changes on banking sector. After completion of Master Program, she had started her real sector career as an Assistant Inspector at TEB-BNP Paribas JV in 2012. She had been promoted to Authorized Assistant Inspector in February 2014. Hatice currently works as a Churn Management Specialist at AVEA.

Hamza Kahriman is an assistant professor of public finance at Celal Bayar University, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Manisa, Turkey. Dr. Kahriman has BAs in Public Finance at Celal Bayar University. He received M.Sc. degree in Public Fiscal Law, Dokuz Eylul University, Izmir, Turkey, 2003; PhD degree in Public Finance, Celal Bayar University, 2010. His main research areas focus on public finance, Turkish tax system, tax law, and fiscal sociology.
Grace Kancheya holds a Masters in Development Studies from the University of the Free State, South Africa. Grace has been active in community development advocacy in Zambia through various NGOs and the government of Zambia. Much of her work has been on rural-peri-urban development through microfinance promotion and access for the poor where she was involved through, among others, Micro Bankers Trust as its Chief Executive. Grace is currently preparing her proposal for a Ph.D in Development Studies at the Centre for Development Support, University of the Free State, South Africa. Ms Kancheya has great research passion in cross-cultural studies, microfinance and micro-enterprise development and sustainability, poverty alleviation and livelihoods, rural-peri-urban development and gender issues.

Serkan Yılmaz Kandır is an Associate Professor of Finance at Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences in Çukurova University, Adana, Turkey. Assoc. Prof. Kandır teaches Capital Markets, Portfolio Management, Behavioral Finance, Corporate Finance and similar courses in finance. He received the B.S. degree in Business Administration, Çukurova University, 1999; M.S. degree in Finance, Çukurova University, 2001; PhD degree in Finance, Çukurova University, 2006. His main research areas focus on behavioral finance, event study and capital markets.

Banu Kiskaç was born in 1977 in Istanbul. She completed her high school degree in Ataköy High School and graduated from Trakya University Management College in 1997. She has completed her internship in Flight Management Department of Turkish Airlines and started working as an officer to the CFO of Turkish Airlines in 1998. Her professional career continued as an officer to SVP, in Finance Department in 2003 and graduated from Anadolu University (B.A. Business Administration) in 2008. She is currently working as the Supervisor to the SVP, Finance and completed her masters degree in June 2014.

Mavhungu Abel Mafukata holds a Ph.D in Development Studies which he obtained at the University of the Free State, South Africa. Dr Mafukata also holds a Masters in Governance and Political Transformation obtained at the same university. Dr Mafukata obtained a Bachelor of Arts in African Politics and Education at the University of South Africa where he also holds Merit Recognition (1995) in African Politics. Dr Mafukata practiced as a classroom-based educator for 15 Years in several High Schools in the Limpopo Province, South Africa after obtaining a Diploma in Secondary Education at the Venda College of Education in 1988. Dr Mafukata holds a Postgraduate Diploma in Organisational Management and Management of Change with Rhodes University, South Africa. Dr Mafukata is currently an Associate Researcher at the Centre for Development Support, University of the Free State. He has to date supervised and examined several Postgraduate Research at the University of the Free State. Dr Mafukata’s research interests are in African Politics, Public service and administration in Sub-Saharan Africa, Community development, microfinance and development, social justice and cross-cultural research methodologies.

Mehmet Mercan is an assistant professor who is working for Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences of Hakkari University in Hakkari/Turkey. At the same time, he is serving as a vice dean for his faculty. He holds a Ph.D. degree from Adnan Menderes University. His current research is focused on fields of macroeconomy, financial markets and panel data analysis.
About the Contributors

Ayşe Oğuzlar is a Professor in Uludağ University Faculty of Administrative and Economic Sciences, Department of Econometrics and vice chairman in the same department. Her scientific interests are multivariate statistical analysis, data mining, six sigma and social networks.

Burcu Parlak was born in 1988. She has completed her undergraduate degree at the Anadolu University, The School of Economics, Department of Public Administration (2012). She has pursued her graduate study on Business Administration at Beykent University and completed her education with her work named “The Effects of Inflation on Financial Systems and Establishments” (Istanbul Turkey, 2014). She has started her career in the departments of Budget and Finance at the University of Beykent and she is now working as a financial affairs specialist at an audit company.

Iman Sugema is an associate professor at Department of Economics, Bogor Agricultural University, Indonesia. He is also a research fellow of International Center for Applied Finance and Economics (Intercafe) and senior economist of Institute for Development of Economics and Finance (INDEF). Iman Sugema holds B.Sc. degree in agribusiness from Bogor Agricultural University, Indonesia in 1987, master and Ph.D. degrees in economics from the University of New England and the Australian National University, Australia, in 1992 and 2000, respectively. His research interest focuses on banking and monetary economics, including Islamic economics. Dr. Sugema has been collaborating in research for years with Bank Indonesia, Ministry of Trade and Ministry of National Planning. Dr. Sugema has published in a number of internationally recognized peer reviewed journals, including Asia Pacific Development Journal and Journal of International Development. Currently Dr. Sugema is Head of TreeX project in developing an education oriented econometric software.

Türker Tuğsal is PhD student of management at Istanbul Commerce University, Institute of Social Sciences, Istanbul-Turkey and researcher of Capital Markets and Portfolio Management department at Beykent University, Faculty of Applied Sciences. He has BAs in Business Administration at Suleyman Demirel University (2003) and Capital Markets and Finance masters degree from Bahcesehir University (2006). Management and Organization Theories, Political Economy, Strategic Management and Organizational Economics are the main pillars of his academic studies.

Pelin Şahin Yarbağ is an assistant professor of entrepreneurship at Beykent University, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Istanbul- Turkey. Dr. Yarbağ has BAs in Business Administration at Beykent University (2001). She received PhD in International Economics with her thesis entitled as “After the 2008 Global Crisis, The Comparative Efficiency Analysis of Banks in Turkey, European Union and United States”. Her major academic studies focusing on entrepreneurship, international economics, strategic management, efficiency analysis and emotional intelligence.
Özge Yavuz is a Research Assistant at Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences in Namık Kemal University, Tekirdağ Turkey. She received the B.S degree in Economics, İstanbul University, 2011, M.S degree in Economic Theory, İstanbul University, 2014. Her main research areas focus on flexibility, public finance, public sector expenditures and health economics.

Durmuş Çağrı Yıldırım was born in 1981. After he graduated from Department of Economics in Kocaeli University in 2005, he started his masters education in Economics in the same year. He got the degree of Masters in Economic Policy in 2007. In 2011, he got his ph.D degree in Economics. While he was a doctorate student, he studied one semester in Almeria University-Spain. Between 2006-2012 he worked as a research assistant. Since 2013, he has been working at Banking and Finance Department as assistant profesor and head of department in Recep Tayyip Erdoğan University. He also worked as a member of team of International Knowledge, Economics and Management Congress. Besides, he was the editor of Journal of Kocaeli University Social Sciences until 2011. He participated in different Projects both as Project manager and adjunct Project manager. Lately, he was the project coordinator of Üsküdar Children University (With the support of Istanbul Development Agency). Other important projects he participated in are Dilovasi Social Cultural Reasearch and Project of Increasing Employment of Disadvantageous Groups. The author has many articles both in national and international journals.

Mehmet Yüce is a Professor in Public Finance Department at the Uludağ University. His research areas include Turkish tax system, tax law, Turkish tax jurisdiction.