About the Contributors

Suresh Kumar is Dean and Professor at School of Management, Bahra University Shimla (Waknaghat), Himachal Pradesh. Dr. Suresh Kumar has retired as professor from The Himachal Pradesh University Business School, H.P. University Shimla, India. He is the chief editor of International Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Systems and serves on the editorial boards of numerous international & national journals of management, commerce and tourism. With an experience of 38 years in academics, management and administration, Professor Suresh has supervised more than 50 PhD and M.Phil. students. He has more than 100 research papers to his credit and authored four books. He has completed 10 research projects and accomplished many research works for government and other agencies. Professor Suresh has served at various responsible positions like Dean Students Welfare, Dean Planning & Teachers Affairs, Chief Warden and many more positions at Himachal Pradesh University Shimla. He is a member of various organisations both social and academic at national and international level. He has been in expert committees of UGC/AICTE and other apex bodies of Government.

Mohinder Chand Dhiman is currently Professor in Tourism & Hotel Management at Kurukshetra University – Kurukshetra. Prof. Dhiman’s teaching interests have been in Travel Agency Management, HRM in Hospitality and Tourism, Hospitality Finance & Accounting, and Hospitality Strategic Management. As a part of his research program, he has published more than 80 research papers and authored / co-authored six books in Tourism and Hospitality. He has supervised more than 20 PhD and M.Phil. scholars. He has developed / designed various courses in tourism& hospitality at university level. He has been in expert committees of universities and other government institutions. Presently, he is the editor of International Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Systems. Prof. Dhiman is serving as Editorial Board member of many international and national journals. He is also General Secretary of Indian Hospitality Congress (IHC).

Ashish Dahiya is Associate Professor in Institute of Hotel & Tourism Management, Maharshi Dayanand University – Rohtak, Haryana, India. He also serves as Jt. secretary to Indian Hospitality Congress. Besides being the founder editor of India’s First Hospitality Journal - JOHAR: Journal of Hospitality Application & Research he also serves as a Managing Editor of Journal of Tourism – An International Journal. He is also Associate Editor of International Journal of Hospitality & Tourism Systems and serves on International Board of Various International and National Journals of Hospitality & Tourism. Dahiya has been founder member of Department of Hotel Management & Catering Technology BIT Mesra Ranchi India and Pre Opening member of Hotel & Tourism Management at BIT International Centre UAE. He has served as an Associate Professor at Centre for Mountain Tourism & Hospitality
About the Contributors

Ankush Ambardar is an Assistant Professor of Hotel Management at the University of Kurukshetra. He holds a Bachelor Degree in Hotel Management (BHM) from University of Bangalore (2002), a Master of Hotel Management (MHM) form University of Kurukshetra (2004), and has earned his Ph.D. in Training and Development Practices in hotels of India from University of Kurukshetra (2011). He is having blend of industry and teaching experience. His area of interest includes Accommodation Operations and Human Resource Development. He has attended and presented papers in numerous seminars, conferences and workshops. He has also published research papers in journals of repute. His long-term research agenda encompasses several philosophical and strategic topics of tourism and hospitality areas.

Manish Anand is working as Associate Professor and in charge Department of Hotel Management, Maharaja Agrasen University Baddi Solan. Dr. Anand has also worked with Maharishi Markamdeshwar University Mullana as HOD (Front Office) for more than 5 years. He received his Ph.D. degree from Kurukshetra University Kurukshetra. His teaching interests have been in Front Office Management, Human Resource Management. As part of research program he has published papers on ICT in Indian Hotel Industry. He has also worked with The Met New Delhi in Front Office (A Unit of JAL).

Adarsh Batra is Director of Research in Sustainable Business, MBA-Tourism Programme, ABAC, Graduate School of Business, Assumption University of Thailand, Bangkok. His research interest includes eco-tourism, sustainable tourism, service marketing and tourism impacts. He has participated in and attended various international and national conferences besides the publication of research papers in reputed journals.

Felicia Ramona Birău is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, Constantin Brâncusi University of Targu Jiu. Her area of expertise includes: risk management, strategic management, qualitative and quantitative finance, financial econometrics, accounting, financial analysis, capital markets, investment, marketing, and economics. She has published numerous papers in international and national journals of repute. She has also participated in various international and national conferences.

Saran Preet Kaur Broca is an Asst. Registrar, Finance and Budget, University of Jammu, India. She is actively involved teaching and administrative activities. She has many research papers on her credit besides attending seminars and conferences.

Sushma Chugh is Professor at Institute of Vocational Studies, Himachal Pradesh University Shimla-India. She is director and SAP coordinator besides discharging other administrative responsibilities at University. She has numerous research papers on her credit at international level.
Megha Gupta is an Assistant Professor of Hotel Management at the University of Kurukshetra. She holds a Masters of Hotel Management (MHM) form University of Kurukshetra (2004), and has earned her Ph.D. in “Issues and trends in gender equality in Indian hotel industry- A study of National Capital Region” from University of Kurukshetra (2013). She is having blend of industry and teaching experience. Her area of interest includes Accommodation Operations and Marketing Research. She has attended and presented papers in numerous seminars, conferences and workshops. She has also published research papers in journals of repute. She has been teaching undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate since 2004. She has a strong hold on teaching methodology gained through a variety of courses taught in institutes like: C T Institute of Hotel Management & Catering Technology, Jalandhar, Punjab; MMIHM, M.M. University, Ambala. Moreover, she has obtained industrial exposure from hotel properties like: Select Holiday Resorts, Gurgaon; Radisson, Delhi.

Nutfillo Ibragimov is the teacher of the Department of Economic Education and Tourism at Bukhara State University. He received his PhD in Economics from the Samarkand Institute of Economics and Service in 2007. His thesis was titled “The application of the concept of destination management in the development of internal tourism in Uzbekistan”. He received his MA from the Bukhara State University in 2002. From 2002 he started to study the discipline “Destination management” in Trento Tourism Academy, Italy under the supervision of Umberto Martini. Since 2008 he has been teaching Destination management, Destination Marketing, and Organization of Tour operating activity in Bukhara State University. He is the author of more than 20 articles, and the monograph “Destination management: the art of the management of internal tourism”.

Anastasia A. Katou is an Assistant Professor of Organisational Strategy at the Department of Business Administration, University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki, Greece. Her research interests include human resource management, organizational behaviour, and business strategies, with a focus on organizational performance. She received a BA and an MBA from the University of Sunderland, U.K., and a PhD and a PgDip from the Cardiff University, Wales, U.K. She has published numerous articles in leading academic journals, including the International Journal of Human Resource Management, Thunderbird International Business Review, Employee Relations, European Management Journal, European Journal of International Management, Personnel Review, Management Research Review, Journal of World Business, International Journal of Business Governance and Ethics, International Journal of Manpower, and Human Resource Management.

Suvidha Khanna is an Assistant Professor at School of Hospitality and Tourism Management, University of Jammu, India. She is specialises in tourism and hospitality management. She has contributed numerous papers on tourism and hospitality in international journals of repute besides attending & participating in international and national conferences.

Amit Kumar, Assistant Professor at Department of Tourism and Hotel Management, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, obtained his master’s and Ph.D. degree in Tourism Management from same department. Besides this, He also obtained MBA degree in International Hospitality from IMI, Switzerland. He is specialized in Tourism Management, Travel Agency & Tour Operations Management, Hospitality Human Resource Management, Events Management, ICT & Computers, CRM, Front Office and F&B Production and Service. He has designed, formulated, developed and taught a variety of courses such as MTM, MHM, MBA (Hospitality Management), BHM&CT at the university level. He has been in teaching and research since August 2008 and has participated and presented research papers in various International and National Seminars/Conferences/Workshops along with research publications in International and National reputed journals. He is also acting as visiting faculty at IHM, Kurukshetra and Dev Sanskriti University, Haridwar. E-Mail: ak.amitmathur@gmail.com
About the Contributors

Azizan Marzuki is Senior Lecturer at the School of Housing Building and Planning, Universiti Sains Malaysia and Adjunct Research Associate at the Faculty of Education, Humanities and Law, Flinders University, South Australia. His research interests include tourism planning, urban and regional planning, and public participation in tourism.

Bakhtiyor Navruz-Zoda is the professor of the Department of Economic Education and Tourism at Bukhara State University (BSU) and academician of Academy of Sciences Turon, Uzbekistan. He received his doctorate degree (PhD) in Economics Science from the University of St. Petersburg (formerly “Leningrad”) of Russia in 1991. From 1991 to 1993 he was the pro-rector on economy and marketing of Tajik state university and member of Economic Council at the President of Republic of Tajikistan. From 1996 to 2000 he was the Dean of Economic faculty of Bukhara State University and from 2003 to 2010 he worked as Head of chair of the Economic theory at this university. He has been awarded by the Gold medal of the International Biographical Centre of Cambridge, England in nomination of “International Professional of the year 2005” for achievement in the field of Economics. His research interests include tourism and hospitality economy and marketing, pricing, estimation of business value, nanoeconomics.

G. Poyyamoli is Associate Professor Department of Ecology & Environmental Sciences, Coordinator, MSc (sustainable development) Pondicherry University. Dr Poyyamoli specializes in Social Ecology, climate change & sustainability- sustainable waste management, green campus, Agro-Ecology & Industrial Ecology, sustainable Tourism/Ecotourism, and Integrated Coastal Zone Management. Dr Poyyamoli has published 42 journal articles, 2 books and 20 book chapters besides participating in numerous international and national conferences.

Youngsun Shin (ysshin67@yahoo.com) is a lecturer in tourism & hospitality management at Wanbo College, China. She was formerly also an assistant professor in the Department of Tourism at Honam University, Korea but moved to a position in China since 2010. She teaches SIT (special interest tourism), tourism & hospitality management, tourism marketing at undergraduate level. Her specialist research areas include event and festival tourism and destination marketing, cultural tourism for urban and rural areas.