About the Contributors

Adeyinka Tella is a senior lecturer in the Department of Library and Information Science, Faculty of Communication and Information Sciences, University of Ilorin, Nigeria. Tella is a commonwealth scholar who finished his PhD in September 2009 from the Department of Library and Information Studies; University of Botswana. Tella was rated as the no 28th scientist in Nigeria and first in his University in the ranking of scientist in Nigeria released by Webometrics in March, 2015. In 2007, he was awarded a small grant for thesis writing for the PhD students’ category by the council for the development of social science research in Africa (CODESRIA). He has written and published articles mostly in international reputable refereed journals together with chapters in books. He is one of the contributors to an information science reference ‘Cases on Successful E-learning Practices in the Developed and Developing World: Methods for the Global Information Economy.’ Currently, he is the Associate Editor International Journal of Library and Information Science, and Editor-in-Chief- International Journal of Information Processing and Communication (IJIPC). His research areas include e-learning, information literacy, information communication technology, psychology of information, etc.

* * *

Adewojo Akinade Adebowale is presently a librarian at the Nigerian Stored Products Research Institute, he holds a bachelor’s degree in library and information science from university of Ilorin in 2013.

Ganiyu Ojo Adigun is a Chattered Librarian and an Executive Member, Nigerian Library Association (NLA), Oyo State Chapter; he has a number of publications in reputable local and international journals. He is presently a Librarian II with Olusegun Oke Library, Ladoke Akintola University of Technology, Ogbomosho, Oyo State, Nigeria. He attended Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Nigeria between 1994 – 1997, 1998 – 2002 and 2008 – 2011 where he obtained Diploma in Library Science (DLS), Bachelor of Library and Information Science (BLIS) and Masters of Information Science (MIS) respectively. He also attended University of Ilorin between 2005 – 2007 for Masters of Business Administration (MBA). He is currently a research student with the Department of Library and Information Science, University of Ilorin, Nigeria. Adigun’s research interest cut across: Scholarly Information Environment and Communication, Online Information Environment, Information Organisation, Use of Information Communication Technology (ICT), Digital Librarianship, and Information Support Services to Distance Learning. Adigun is married and blessed with children.
About the Contributors

Joel Olawale Afolayan holds National Diploma (2005) and Higher National Diploma (2008) both in Library and Information Science, Federal Polytechnic, Offa and Post Graduate Diploma in Education (PGDE), National Teachers’ Institute (NTI), Kaduna (2015). He currently works with Michael Imoudu National Institute for Labour Studies (MINILS), Nigeria as Senior Library Officer. His research areas of interest include Information Resources Management; Organization of Knowledge; Records and Archive Management; Information Services in Industrial and Labour Relations; Community Development and Value Reorientation. He is also a member of professional bodies like The Institute for Information and Record Management of Nigeria (TIIREM), Abuja; Records and Information Management Awareness Foundation (RIMAF) Lagos. He is the Public Relations Officer of the Kwara State Chapter of Nigeria Library Association (2013-2016). He is married to Victoria and blessed with a baby.

Seyedali Ahrari is currently completing a PhD programme in the field of youth studies at Institute for Social Science Studies, Universiti Putra Malaysia. He obtained his Master of Science in sociology from Science and Research Branch of the Islamic Azad University (Tehran SRBIAU). To date, he is involved in different research projects.

Ayoola Oluwaseun Ajayi holds a first degree in Guidance and Counselling and a Master of Information Science degree from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria. He is an administrative staff in the Registry of the same University. His research interests cover Social Informatics, Information Systems, Knowledge Management and ICT for development.

Akakandelwa Akakandelwa is a senior lecturer in the Department of Library and Information Studies, School of Education, University of Zambia. He holds a Bachelor of Arts with Library and Information Studies (University of Zambia), a Master of Library and Information Studies (University of Botswana), and a PhD in Political and Social Sciences (University of Antwerp, Belgium). He lectures in a number of courses at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. He has published widely in peer refereed journals and has written a number of book chapters. His major areas of research include Informetrics (bibliometrics, citation analysis, webometrics, and scientometrics), E-government, Information ethics, Information Literacy, Information Seeking Behavior, Information Systems, Data and Knowledge Management, Information Retrieval, and Organization of Knowledge and Information Resources (Cataloguing and Classification).

Aregbesola Ayooluwa is the Collections Development Librarian of the Centre for Learning Resources, Landmark University, Omu-Aran, Nigeria. He holds Bachelor Degree in Economics and Education from the University of Ado-Ekiti, and M.Inf.Sc. in Information Science from the University of Ibadan. He has a considerable number of publications in reputable local and international journals. He is a Member of the Nigerian Library Association (NLA), Member of the Information Technology Section of the Nigerian Library Association and a Certified Librarian of Nigeria (CLN).

Kwaghga Beetseh is a library staff at the Federal University of Agriculture Makurdi. He is a part time lecturer at the College of Advance and Professional Studies Makurdi. Mr. Beetseh has published locally and internationally. He is member of Association of Nigerian Teachers (ASSONT), member Collaboration of Education Faculties in West Africa (CEFWA) and member Nigerian Political Association (NPSA). He is happily married.
Jusang Bolong is an Associate Professor, a senior lecturer and currently acts as the Deputy Dean of Research and Innovation at Faculty of Modern Language and Communication, Universiti Putra Malaysia. He gained his Ph.D. in Human Communication from Universiti Putra Malaysia and most of his research focus on technology usage among the community.

Okiki Olatokunbo Christopher is the Systems Librarian in the University Library, University of Lagos, Akoka, Lagos, Nigeria. He holds a Ph.D in Library Science from the University of Ibadan, Ibadan, Nigeria. His research focus is on information literacy, Knowledge management, Data Mining, Development and installation of retrieval system & information services.

Prakash Dongardive was born in 15 June 1976, at ‘Mera BK’ a small town in India located in the state Maharashtra. Mr. Prakash hold M.A. in (Sociology), MLIS (Library and Information Science), from Nagpur University, India. He earned a certificate in information Technology from Technical Board Mumbai, MS, India as well as qualified UGC SET. He is an Electronic Resource Librarian in King Abdullah University of Science and Technology, Saudi Arabia, and presently an Asst. Professor in Mekelle University, Ethiopia. He has published a number of book chapters and research papers.

Toluwani Adeyimika Eyiolorunshe has a Master’s degree in Library and Information Studies (MLIS). She is a librarian in the readers’ services unit at the Centre for Learning Resources (CLR), Landmark University, Omu-Aran.

Olarone O. Fagbola, Ph.D. is a Librarian with the Library/ Learning Resources, National Open University of Nigeria, Lagos, Nigeria. Her research interest covers users studies, Information for organisational development and management.

Okocha Foluke currently serves as the Serials Librarian of the Centre for Learning Resources, Landmark University, Nigeria. She holds a B.Sc. in Management Information Systems from the Covenant University, M.Sc. in Information Science, in University of Ibadan. She is an Oracle Certified Associate and an Oracle Certified Professional.

Idachaba Joy A is a Chartered Librarian working at the University of Agriculture Library Makurdi. She is a Principal Librarian, holds BLS, MLS (NIG) and currently running a Ph.D. programme in the Department of Library and Information Science University of Nigeria, Nsukka. She has published scholarly works including Journal articles and Abstracts of Ph.D. Thesis and Dissertation of University of Agriculture Makurdi. Idachaba J.A has a very strong passion for Librarianship as a profession.

Tom Kowany is a Knowledge Management specialist with several years of practical experience. He has developed and implemented Knowledge Management strategies; conducted knowledge audits; developed models and frameworks for knowledge elicitation and representation; and conducted knowledge management capacity building and mentoring consultancies in the South, East, West and Horn of Africa regions. He has also taught knowledge and information management; technology-mediated communication; and infopreneurship in public and private universities in Kenya. He is a published author of several refereed journal articles, conference papers and two monographs. His current areas of research interest include social networkps analysis; infodemiology and infoveillance; library innovations; knowledge management; and infopreneurship. He holds PhD in Information Studies from the University of KwaZulu-Natal in South Africa. He is currently a senior lecturer in the Department of Information and Knowledge Management at The Technical University of Kenya.
About the Contributors

Stella C. Nduka is an acquisition Librarian at the University of Lagos Library. She is a certified librarian and a member of Nigeria Library Association. She has passion for rendering library services to users and also meeting user’s information needs. Her research areas are; Innovative Technologies, ICT tools and Use, Digital Libraries, Library management and women & Gender issues in Librarianship.

Oluwole Akanmu Odunola is a part time Lecturer at Professional Accountancy Training. He has been lecturing Information Technology (IT) and Management Information System (MIS) for over 8 years. He has produced more than 100 qualified candidates of Account Technician Scheme of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria. Odunola holds B.Sc Computer Science with Second Class Upper Division and Master of Library and Information Studies with PhD grade from University of Ilorin and University of Ibadan. He is working at Olusegun Oke Library as System Analyst in Ladoke Akintola University of Technology Ogboromoso. He is currently a doctoral student in the Department of Library and Information Science, University of Ilorin. Odunola research interest cut across: System Analysis, Library Automation, Information Technology used in the library, use of library, library patronage, library management and information use.

Ojo Olubukola James was born 36 years ago in Lagos Nigeria and has a Ph.D. in Educational Management from the University of Ilorin, Nigeria where he is currently a lecturer. His research interest is on ICT. He has taught courses at both undergraduate and graduate levels.

E Ondari-Okemwa, PhD, Professor and Head, Department of Library and Information Science, University of Fort Hare, Alice, South Africa. Research interests: Knowledge management, Digital libraries, knowledge production, Scholarly communication, Information resources management and Open access publishing. Author of several journal articles, one book and two book chapters.

Japhet Otike is a professor in the Department of Library, Records Management and Information Studies, School of Information Sciences at Moi University, Eldoret in Kenya. He had his university education in library and information studies at Makerere University in Uganda and Loughborough University in the United Kingdom. The author has served as Head of the Department of Library and Information Studies; and until August 2014, he was Dean, School of Information Sciences at Moi University. His research and teaching interests are in legal information with particular reference to copyright; marketing of library and information services; and disaster management.

Sola Owolabi is currently the Readers’ Services Librarian, Centre for Learning Resources, Landmark University. He has worked with United Bank for Africa, Olaniwun Ajayi (Law Firm), KPMG Professional Services and Synergy Sparks. He holds DLS, BLIS and MLIS in Library and Information Studies, University of Ibadan. He has considerable number of publications in reputable local and international journals. He is a member of Nigerian Library Association (NLA), member Information Technology Section of the Nigerian Library Association and a Certified Librarian of Nigeria (CLN).
Oguntayo Adebisi Sunday is a Resource Officer 1 in the Centre for Learning Resources, Landmark University, Omu Aran. He holds Bachelor of Library Science degree from Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria and Master of Library of Information Science from Delta State University, Abraka. He has published some papers in professional journals. He is a registered member of Librarian’s Registration Council of Nigeria (LRCN), member, Nigerian Library Association; member Nigerian Library Association Cataloguing, Classification and Indexing section and member Nigerian Library Association Medical Library section. He is the Head Technical Services Landmark University Omu aran.

Pedro Pina is a lawyer and a law teacher at the Polytechnic Institute of Coimbra - ESTGOH, in Portugal. He holds a law degree from the University of Coimbra Law School and a post-graduation in Territorial Development, Urbanism and Environmental Law from the Territorial Development, Urbanism and Environmental Law Studies Center (CEDOUA) at the University of Coimbra Law School. He holds a master degree in Procedural Law Studies from the University of Coimbra Law School and is currently a Ph.D. student in the Doctoral Programme ‘Law, Justice, and Citizenship in the Twenty First Century’ from the University of Coimbra Law School and Economics School.

Oyeniran Saheed was born 46 years ago in Osun State, Nigeria and has a Ph.D. in Educational Management from the University of Ilorin. He is a Lecturer in the Department of Educational Management, University of Ilorin, Nigeria. His research interest is on Economics of Education. He has taught courses at both Undergraduate and Graduate levels.

Bahaman Abu Samah started his career as a lecturer at Universiti Putra Malaysia in 1982. Currently he serves as director at Institute for Social Science Studies (IPSAS). His teaching focuses in statistic and computer application in Human Resource Development. As a researcher, he is actively involved in different research projects.

Adewale Joel Sobalaje is a Librarian at Olusegun Oke Library, Ladoke Akintola University of Technology, Ogbomoso, Oyo State, Nigeria. He holds Bachelor of Technology in Agric-Econs and Extension (B.Tech.) from the same university and Master of Information Science (M.Inf.Sc.) in Africa Regional Centre for Information Science from the university of Ibadan, Ibadan, Oyo-State, Nigeria. His area of interest is in Information Communication Technology, Cataloguing and Classification.

Akande Femi Titus is presently Director Information and Documentation at Nigerian Stored Product Research Intitute, Ilorin. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Science Education from Ahmadu Bello University Zaria in 1987. He has a Master degree in Information Library and Archival Studies from the University of Ibadan. He also has a Master degree in Public Administration MPA from University of Ilorin in 1993 and PGD Certificate in Mass Communication at University of Lagos. He has scholarly publications to his credit. He is married and blessed with children.

Michael T. Upev is a Senior Librarian, Head of Collection Development at Francis Sulemanu Idachaba Library, University of Agriculture, Makurdi, Nigeria. He holds Master of Library Archival information Studies Degree from the University of Ibadan in 2004. His research interest includes information resources management, knowledge management, and information searching and retrieval.
About the Contributors

Felicia Yusuf is the pioneer University Librarian (Director of the Centre for Learning Resources), Landmark University. She holds a B.A degree in Library Science/Sociology from Bayero University, Kano and a Master degree in Library and Information Science from the University of Ibadan. Before she was redeployed to Landmark University in 2011, she had worked for eight years at the Centre for Learning Resources, Covenant University, Ota where she received an award for singularly automating the Serials Section of the Library. She has published substantially in a number of reputable local and international journals. Yusuf, Felicia is a member of the Nigeria Library Association (NLA) and a Certified Librarian of Nigeria (CLN).

Zeinab Zaremohzzabieh is the corresponding author of the paper and currently doing PhD programme in the field of youth studies at Institute for Social Science Studies, Universiti Putra Malaysia. She obtained her Master of Science in sociology from Science and Research Branch of the Islamic Azad University (Tehran SRBIAU). To date, she has completed a number of research projects related to the community development and ICT.