About the Contributors

Aqsa Agha is currently pursuing Phd from Centre for Historical Studies, JNU. The topic of research is The Awadh Nawabi: Politics, Culture and Legitimacy 1722-1810 c. focusing on the composite culture as the hallmark of Awadh political culture.

Priyanka Chandra is a doctoral candidate at the Centre for West Asian Studies (CWAS), school of International Studies in Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU). She is currently working under the supervision of Prof. A. K. Ramakrishnan on her PhD. thesis titled Egyptian State and the Question of Legitimacy: 1970-2011. She has a Masters degree in Politics with a specialization in International Relations from JNU and completed her MPhil in the CWAS, JNU. The topic of her MPhil. dissertation was Contributions of Jamaluddin al-Afghani and Muhammad Abduh to the Debates on Nationalism. Her interests include international relations, religion and politics, secularism, nationalism, Islamic modernism, state, civil society and social transformation, political economy, feminism and gender issues, West Asian politics, Indian politics, and political thinkers. She has written articles and reviews as well as presented papers at seminars and conferences.

Sree Krishna Bharadwaj Hotur was born on November 2nd, 1991, has completed his BBA LL.B (Hons.) from JSS Law College, Mysore in the year 2014, LL.M. (University Rank Holder and Gold Medallist) from Karnataka State Law University’s Law School, Huballi and Post Graduate Diploma in Human Resource Management from Alagappa University both in June, 2015. Currently he is pursuing his Ph.D. from National Law School of India University, Bangalore. He has published more than a dozen of his articles on diverse subjects in various journals including international journals. He has also participated in many national and state level conferences and workshops as well. Feel free to ask any questions or give suggestions- Krishnabharadwaj211@gmail.com.
About the Contributors

Athul M.A. worked in SATP as research Assistant for a year and 4 months. Currently working as risk consultant in Mumbai.

Sukanya Natarajan is currently a Doctoral Candidate at the Center for the Study of Law and Governance, JNU, New Delhi. She was formerly Research Fellow at the Berlin School of Law and Economics and Visiting Research Fellow at the Japan Center for Economic Research, Tokyo. She received her LLM in Law and Economics from the University of Manchester, UK and an MA in Politics and International Relations from Jawaharlal Nehru University, India.

Meha Pant is a Doctoral Scholar at the Jawaharlal Nehru University. She has contributed a number of articles to various journals and books and has also participated in various seminars held focusing on the security issues.

Sudha Jha Pathak has done post-graduation in History from Jadavpur University, Calcutta and Doctorate from the M.S University of Vadodara, Baroda. She taught at various Colleges in Mumbai before joining the Amity Law School, Delhi where she currently teaches. She has presented papers at several conferences and seminars. Her area of interest is Gender Studies. She is also trained in Indian classical dance (Bharatnatyam) and in playing Guitar.

Sirjjan Preet is an Independent Economist and Consultant based in New Delhi. She is also Senior Member, Youth Technical Training Society (YTTS) - an NGO operating in Chandigarh. She was formerly Research Consultant at Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations (ICRIER) and Assistant Director at Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI). She has represented India at the Seminar on Economic Policies hosted by the Ministry of Finance, Japan and won the Outstanding Policy Paper Award out of 25 participants from 19 countries. She holds a Masters degree in Financial Economics from University of Nottingham, UK, as well as a second Masters degree in Commerce from Panjab University, India. She can be contacted at sirjjan@gmail.com.