About the Contributors

Ioana Iancu graduated from Political Science. She has MA studies in Management of Political Organizations and in Advertising at Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca and MA studies in Political Science at Central European University, Budapest. She has a PhD in Sociology. She currently holds a Lecturer position at the Faculty of Political, Administrative and Communication Sciences, Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, Romania.

* * *

Ainul Mohsein Abdul-Mohsin is a senior lecturer at School of Management, Universiti Sains Malaysia. She is attached to the Department of International Business. She has 15 years of corporate experience from various industries. Her work experience varies from the financial services, international non-profit organisation, manufacturing, shared services and consultancy. She has work in Malaysia and abroad. Her interest in research are in competitive intelligence, change management, entrepreneurial competencies, and innovative performance.

Catalina Lucía Ruiz Arias is a Master of Science in Strategic Product Design from Delft University of Technology (Netherlands), a Specialist in Design and Product Management for Export, and an Industrial Designer. She has obtained her business experience in product design, development, and consultancy at national and international companies from various sectors (including companies located in Brazil and the Netherlands). Ms. Ruiz has also worked as a professor at various universities of the country. At present, she works for Universidad EAN as an Associate Professor at the Institute for Entrepreneurship, Leadership and Innovation - IDELI (from the Spanish Instituto de Emprendimiento, Liderazgo e Innovación), where she leads projects associated with consulting and training on innovation and design thinking for entrepreneurs and enterprises, and she coordinates the entrepreneurship incubator program (EAN IMPACTA).

Verónica Baños-Monroy is a Professor of Entrepreneurship at Tecnológico de Monterrey (Mexico). She received her M.Sc. A. from Tecnológico de Monterrey (ITESM), a Ph.D. in Administrative Science from the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM) and a second Ph. D. in International Business from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid (UAM) in Spain. She studies the succession process and innovation in family firms. She has served as a Visiting Professor at the University of San Diego. She has also published articles in different international academic journals. Currently serves as a Full Professor and as a Family Business Consultant in the Entrepreneurship Division at Tecnológico de Monterrey, campus Guadalajara; she teaches courses in Family Business and Service Management at the undergraduate and masters levels.
About the Contributors

Constanta-Nicoleta Bodea is a Professor of artificial intelligence and project management at the Academy of Economic Studies (AES), Bucharest, Romania. She directs a Masters Program in Project Management, and is the head of the Economic Research Department at AES. She managed more than 20 R&D and IT projects in the last ten years, contributor and author of 11 books and more than 50 papers on Project Management, Information Systems, and Artificial Intelligence, being Honored by IPMA with the Outstanding Research Contributions (2007).

Francisco Javier Matiz Bulla is a PhD (c) in New Economy Management from Universidad de Las Palmas de Gran Canaria - ULPGC (Spain), a Master in Organizational Management from Université du Québec à Chicoutimi - UQAC (Canada) and Universidad EAN, a Specialist in Consumer Psychology, and a Professional in International Trade. He coordinates the Young Export Entrepreneurs Program of the Ministry of Foreign Trade and has worked as a professor at various national universities. At present, he works for Universidad EAN as an Associate Professor, and as the Director of the Entrepreneurship Research Group and the Entrepreneur Program belonging to the Institute for Entrepreneurship, Leadership and Innovation - IDELI (from the Spanish Instituto de Emprendimiento, Liderazgo e Innovación) at the said University.

Omar Alonso Patiño Castro is a Doctor of Business Administration from the Nebrija University, Business Administrator at Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, a Specialist in Quality Management and Process Innovation from the Center for Postgraduate Studies in Business Administration of the Polytechnic University of Madrid, has a Master in Management from the University of Quebec Chicoutimi, with experience in financial and educational sectors. He is a Professor and the Director of the Research Group at the University EAN wherein he has also been the Dean and the Director of the Program of Business Administration.

Jorge Colvin-Díez has a PhD in Business Administration, Nebrija University, Spain. Diploma in Management Development Program, IESE-University of Navarre, Spain. Master in Finance at IEB (Instituto de Estudios Bursátiles), Spain. He is Finance and Accounting Professor at the American Schiller International University, Madrid Campus, and Associate Professor, Nebrija Business School, Spain. As researcher, he has developed either academic collaborations with IESE and have publications in scientific indexed journals. He has over 15 years of professional experience as auditor for PricewaterhouseCoopers and KPMG. Also he was responsible for mergers and acquisitions in Spain and member of the Chairman’s Office for Codere. He currently works as an advisor in mergers and acquisitions for Spanish multinationals, and for advisory firms, investment banks, and private equity firms.

Alexandru Aurel Costan is a Ph.D. candidate at the Tehnical University of Cluj-Napoca, Computer Science department. His research focus is on cloud computing and inter-cloud technologies.

Vasile Teodor Dadarlat holds a Professor position, since 1998, at the Computer Science Department, Technical University of Cluj-Napoca. He is an invited professor at ICAM Lille, France, internal and external examiner for MSc and PhD thesis at University of Limerick, Ireland. He also serves as expert for national/international bodies. His main research interests are in communication networks protocols, telecommunication systems, integrated digital circuits, next generation networks and security in computer networks.

Spoaller F. Dorin holds a Bachelor Degree in Advertising and PR at Babeș-Bolyai University. Masters Degree in Advertising at Babeș-Bolyai University.

Katja Härkönen has long experience as entrepreneur. She has familiarized with innovation projects and events. Her education is focused on management and entrepreneurship, especially in the University of Lapland. Research interests are in the branches of entrepreneurship, innovations and management.

Bogdan Iancu graduated from the Technical University of Cluj-Napoca, Romania in 2006, with a bachelor degree in Computer Science. In 2008 he graduated a master course in Software Engineering at the same University and in 2011 he received his Ph.D. from the Technical University of Cluj-Napoca, with the thesis “Contributions to Quality of Service Assurance and Performance Enhancement in Computer Networks”. He currently holds an Senior Lecturer position at the Computer Science Department, TUCN. His main research interests are in computer networks, network management, Quality of Service in homogeneous and heterogeneous networks, NGNs, sensor networks, and their applications to VANETs and smart grids. Also, a special interest is in the field of applied technology to innovative business.

José Emilio Jiménez Ibáñez is a PhD (c) in Industrial Project Design, Manufacturing, and Management; a Master in Design Engineering from Universitat Politècnica de València (Spain); a Master in Industrial Design Management from Universidad de Oviedo (Spain); and a Graphic Designer. He has worked as a professor both at national and international universities. The Spanish government granted him with two patents. In 2012 and 2014, Mr. Jiménez was selected to represent Colombia in the category of digital design at the Ibero-American Biennial on Design, and was granted an honorable distinction at the Motiva 2012 awards recognizing the design work in the Principality of Asturias (Spain). He is an independent strategic designer and participated in the Integral Design Accompanying Project promoted by the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Tourism of Colombia, and Confecámaras. At present, he works as an Associate Professor for Universidad EAN at the Institute for Entrepreneurship, Leadership and Innovation - IDELI (from the Spanish Instituto de Emprendimiento, Liderazgo e Innovación).

Radu-Ioan Mogos is assistant professor at Bucharest University of Economic Studies. He is teaching applied artificial Intelligence, computer programming and genetic programming. His research is focused on multi-agent systems.

About the Contributors

Alina Neamtu is Student PhD at Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Faculty of Cibernetic, Statistics and Economic Informatics. Interest in: Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, International financial relations, Managerial finance, Artificial Neuronal Networks.

Adrian Peculea graduated from the Technical University of Cluj-Napoca, Romania in 1996, with a bachelor degree in Applied Electronics. In 2010 he received his Ph.D. in Computer Science from the Technical University of Cluj-Napoca. He currently holds a Senior Lecturer position at the Computer Science Department, TUCN. His main research interests are in computer networks, Quality of Service, Security and mobility in Computer Networks.

Rafael Ignacio Pérez-Uribe is a Doctor in Managerial Sciences, Universidad Antonio de Nebrija. Diploma of Advanced Studies in Applied Economics, Universidad Antonio de Nebrija. Master in Management of Organizations, Universidad EAN. Maître es Sciences, University of Quebec a Chicoutimi. Specialist in Evaluation and Creation of Managerial Indicators for Tertiary Education, Escuela de Administración de Negocios. Graduate studies as Kenkyusei (Assigned researcher) in Total Quality Control and Quality Circles, University of Fukushima, Japan. Business Administrator, Universidad Jorge Tadeo Lozano. Director of the research group in Management of large, medium and small companies (G3pymes) and Professor assigned at the Research and Knowledge Management Division Universidad EAN.

Sofia Petäjäniemi is specialized in the themes of financing. In addition, she has experiences as arranger of elevator pitch events. She has also experiences as an entrepreneur. Her research interests are based on the themes of management, innovations and entrepreneurship.

Oana Mădălina Popescu is assistant professor at Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Faculty of Cibernetics, Statistics and Economic Informatics. Subjects taught: Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Data Analysis. Interest in: Artificial Neuronal Networks.

Alexandru Radu graduated from the Tehnical University of Cluj Napoca, Romania in 2015 with a bachelor degree in Computer Science. Currently he is pursuing a M.Sc. degree in Computer Networks and Distributed Systems at the Tehnical University of Cluj Napoca. His research interest are in cloud computing, distributed systems and applications to IoT.

Maria del Pilar Ramírez-Salazar has a PhD. in Managerial Sciences, Universidad Antonio de Nebrija. PhD. in Management, Universidad EAN. Master in Management of Organizations, Universidad EAN. Maître es Sciences, University of Quebec a Chicoutimi. Specialist in Evaluation and Creation of Managerial Indicators for Tertiary Education, Escuela de Administración de Negocios. Business Administration, Escuela de Administración de Negocios (EAN). Profesional in Pedagogy, Universidad Pedagógica Nacional. Researcher of the research group in Management of big, medium and small companies (G3pymes) and Professor at the School of Online Education School at Universidad EAN.

Edgar Ramírez-Solis is a Professor of Management at Tecnológico de Monterrey (Mexico). He received his Master in Planning and Communication from ITESO University, a Ph.D. in Administrative Science from the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM) and a second Ph. D. in International Business from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid (UAM) in Spain. His research interest includes family firms with special interest in strategy and corporate governance practices. He has served as a Visiting Professor at the University of San Diego. He has also published articles in different international academic journals. Currently serves as a Full Professor and as a Family Business Consultant in the Marketing and Business Department at Tecnológico de Monterrey, campus Guadalajara; he teaches courses in Family Business and Strategic Management at the undergraduate and masters levels.

295

Petru Cosmin Rasa graduated from the Tehnical University of Cluj Napoca, Romania in 2015 with a bachelor degree in Computer Science. Currently he is pursuing a M.Sc. degree in Computer Networks and Distributed Systems at the Tehnical University of Cluj Napoca. His research interest are in IoT, cloud computing and mobile applications.

Lucia Rodriguez-Aceves is a Professor of Entrepreneurship at Tecnológico de Monterrey (Mexico). She received her Ph.D. in Business Administration from EGADE Business School. Her research interests includes Knowledge management and strategy in family firms, with a special focus in using social network analysis. She participates with the Global Knowledge Research Network and the Iberoamerican Knowledge Systems Community. Currently, she serves as a full time professor in the Entrepreneurship Division at Tecnológico de Monterrey, campus Guadalajara; she teaches courses in entrepreneurship and innovation at the undergraduate level.

Rauno Rusko is a lecturer of management at the University of Lapland. His research interests are in the cooperative, competitive and cooperative features of business and management, especially in the branches of ICT, forest industry and tourism. His works have been published e.g. in the Forest Policy and Economics, the International Journal of Business Environment, International Journal of Technoentrepreneurship, the International Journal of Tourism Research, Industrial Marketing Management, Managing Leisure, European Management Journal, International Journal of Innovation in the Digital Economy and Global Business and Management Research: An International Journal.

José Manuel Saiz-Alvarez has a Ph.D. in Economics & Business Administration, Autonomous University of Madrid (Spain). Ph.D. in Sociology, Pontifical University of Salamanca (Spain). He has also studied at the Royal Complutense College at Harvard, University of South Florida, University Lumière-Lyon II (France), Tallinn University (Estonia), and University of Amsterdam (The Netherlands). He has been the Academic Director for Business Administration Doctoral Studies, Nebrija University (Spain). Dr. Saiz-Alvarez is Visiting Professor at TEC de Monterrey (Mexico), EAN University (Colombia), and the Catholic University of Santiago de Guayaquil (Ecuador). Honorary Professor, Autonomous University of Madrid (Spain). President of FIEC Institute. Member of the Latin-American Family Business Net. Co-founder of the International Center of Research on Solidarity Economy. Certificate of Recognition, Capitol House of Representatives of Puerto Rico. Diploma of Honor, Valahia University of Targoviste (Romania). Member of the Scientific Research Council, Kielce University (Poland). Member of the Editorial Board and referee of numerous national and international journals. Who’s Who in the World, from the 2011 Edition. Polyglot in five languages, he has given more than one hundred lectures in Europe and America, and is author of more than a two hundred publications in his specialty. To date he has supervised 70 doctoral thesis from students from Argentina, Colombia, Ecuador, Spain, USA, Guatemala, Italy, Mexico, and Venezuela.
About the Contributors

Farhan Shaikh works as a Strategic Research Consultant in Mumbai office of an international consulting firm, headquartered in France. He has completed his Executive Program in Management (Marketing) from SJM School of Management at IIT Bombay. His areas of interest in research are marketing strategy, Islamic marketing, and everything digital. He has extensively worked on projects which involve understanding the impact of digital on industries, such as finance, transportation and manufacturing, and functions such as marketing, HR, and entrepreneurship.

Stelian Stancu is a Professor of Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Artificial Neuronal Networks at the Academy of Economic Studies (AES), Bucharest, Romania. He managed more than 20 R&D projects in the last ten years, contributor and author of 37 books and more than 100 papers on Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Artificial Neuronal Network.