About the Authors

Theodore L. Perry, PhD (American Healthways) was promoted to Vice President of Informatics in June 2002 at American Healthways Inc. Before joining American Healthways, he was Manager of Program Safeguards at CIGNA HealthCare Medicare Administration. Dr. Perry is also President of Health Research Insights, a group of health care consultants with expertise in Public Health, Epidemiology, Dentistry, Internal Medicine, Biostatistics, Psychology, Nursing and Information Technology. Dr. Perry is a member of the American Statistical Association (ASA), American Medical Informatics Association (AMIA), and the Disease Management Association of America (DMAA). He has a Doctor of Philosophy in Psychology from Vanderbilt University, a Masters of Arts in Psychology from Vanderbilt University and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Clark University.

Russ Danstrom (Blue Cross Blue Shield) is Executive Director of Small Accounts Sales & Promotions for Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield. Russ earned his B.A. at the University of Richmond and his MBA from the Kenan-Flagler School of Business at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Jeff Nicola (Blue Cross Blue Shield) is a Certified Six Sigma Black Belt and Manager of Customer Acquisition Analysis for Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield. He has published several anthropological archaeology articles and co-authored a business case study. Jeff earned his BA from Northwestern University, MA from the University of Virginia, and MBA from the College of William & Mary Graduate School of Business.

Jeff Hoffman (The Chubb Corporation) is currently Vice President of Customer and Market Intelligence and E-Business of Chubb & Son, a division of Federal Insurance Company. He is responsible for Business Intelligence, Market Research and E-Business where he sets strategy, directs and provides oversight related to developing intelligence information from internal and external sources. In leading Chubb’s Market Research team he is accountable for developing scope, managing, executing and summarizing results of qualitative and quantitative research initiatives. Jeff also directs and leads Chubb’s E-Business efforts, focusing on supporting common platforms, setting standards and gathering Web visitation intelligence. Jeff received his B.A. in Economics from Rutgers University in 1984. He completed the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania Insurance Executive Development Program in September 2000.

Ákos Felsővályi (CitiGroup) is currently a Vice President in the Risk Architecture Unit at Citigroup. He develops various risk assessment tools utilizing the vast amount of financial data of the Corporation. Previously, he worked in Direct Marketing at the company’s credit card business, where he was mining the credit card data and constructed a range of statistical models. He holds an M.S. in Applied Mathematics from his native country, Hungary.

Jennifer Courant (CitiGroup) is currently a Vice President of Risk Modeling in the Risk Architecture Unit at Citigroup. She develops and supports credit risk models for use in the bank’s corporate lending business. She has been previously employed as a real estate economist at AEW Capital Management. She holds a B.S. in Economics from Saint Vincent College.

Nicholas Galletti (Con Edison Energy) is Director of Financial & Market Analysis at Con Edison Energy, a subsidiary of Consolidated Edison Inc. He gained his pricing experience by overseeing the financial evaluation of the Company’s structured transactions and asset investments. Mr. Galletti is a graduate of New York University’s Leonard M. Stern School of Business, where he holds a Master’s Degree in Business Administration (Finance). He also has a Bachelor’s Degree in Mechanical Engineering from Manhattan College.

Navin C. Sharma, PhD (Marketwell Inc.) is President of Marketwell, Inc., a consulting company which provides Data Warehousing, Database Marketing, and Data Mining services to corporations in a variety of industries. He has over twenty years of experience in Marketing Research, Modeling, Information Technology, and Systems Integration and has consulted with major firms in such sectors as Cosmetics, Banking, Brokerage, Publishing, and Travel and Leisure. Mr. Sharma has a bachelor’s in Mechanical Engineering and PhD in Sociology from the University of Illinois.

David Martin (Nielsen//NetRatings) is a data analyst with the Nielsen//NetRatings Client Analytics department. The department specializes in mining online advertising and website traffic databases to help clients address complicated business questions with answers that lie outside the scope of NetRatings’ syndicated data services. David spends his time writing SQL queries and macros to mine and manipulate data, and provides project costs and turnaround time estimates for clients. He holds a bachelor’s degree from Harvard University and spends his free time as a competitive distance runner.

Robert Young (PHD Canada, A Subsidiary of Omnicom Group Inc.) is a founding partner of Harrison, Young, Pesonen and Newell Inc., which began operation in 1979 and has grown over the last 20 years into one of Canada’s largest media management companies, currently billing over $300 million. HYPN is part of the PHD network of media companies, which, in turn, is owned by Omnicom. Rob has been responsible for HYPN’s Media Planning and Media Research output which provides Media Planning services for many of Canada’s largest and most sophisticated advertisers including such accounts as Unilever, Honda, Cara and Home Hardware. HYPN’s Media Research services often involve providing advertising value assessments for broadcasters; providing print media evaluation for publishers; providing data mining and econometric evaluations of his client’s media programs. He currently is Chair of the Board of Directors of the Print Measurement Bureau.

Vernon E. Gerety, PhD (PredictiveMetrics, Inc.) is the Senior Vice President of PredictiveMetrics, Inc. (formerly Predictive Business Decision Systems, PBDS). He is responsible for business development of custom knowledge-based solutions for new and existing clients and for the development of new products and services. Prior to joining PredictiveMetrics, Vernon spent over ten years in various management positions at AT&T, D&B, GE Capital and Advanta Business Services. Vernon was responsible for leading teams of people in setting up and integrating automated knowledge-based strategic initiatives. He earned his Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Arizona in Tucson and his B.A. from California State University, Fresno.