

Acknowledgment

With gratitude and respect we thank the following people without whom the book would not have come to fruition. To our publisher, IGI Global, who supported this project and, particularly Kristin M. Roth, who provided constant support during a challenging process. A special note of thanks also to our contributors who were so kind as to share their expertise in a reviewing role, showing their commitment to producing a high quality book. To all those working to expand and enhance scientific knowledge in the field of HRIS and e-HRM, and who have contributed—and continue to do so—to the development of guidelines to achieve more efficient and effective management. And last but not least, (from Teresa) to my creative sons, Arnau and Jordi, who have made my life a fascinating journey. And (from Mario) to my wife, Mar, who has always supported me.
