

Dedication

In honour of my grandmother, Gertrude “Bubie” Zack who, in her 91st year, continues to teach me (and so many others) the joy in never stopping to learn, love, and share; and in memory of my grandfather, Les “Zaida” Zack, who would often say to me, “I may not have much of an education, but I sure as heck can teach you a thing or two.” Never have truer words been spoken.

DGS

To my parents Sam and Sara

DT