accessibility barriers 120 access through web courses 57 action learning 3, 8, 10, 340 ADDIE model 30
adult education, current perspectives 213 adult education pardigm shift 150 adult learner class environments 226 adult learners 55
adult learners, future of progressive learning 294 adult learning, dispositional barriers 117 adult learning enhancement 160 adult learning, institutional barriers 117 adult learning, situational barriers 116 adult online learner success 62 adult online student population, demographics 57 adult student in universities 287 adult student profile 285 adult students 285
adult student satisfaction with distance education 58 adult students in the university today 287 allagegogy 34, 35
andragogical model 99
andragogy 34, 35, 43, 81, 82, 98, 99, 100, 152, 162, 215, 321
ANN 155, 159
Anna Karenina principle 60 anytime/anywhere online learning 115–123 artificial neural networks (ANN) 159 assessing student creativity 242 assessment methodologies, selecting 41 ASSURE model 31
asynchronous 275
asynchronous learning 3, 10
auditory learners 72

B

backward design model 32 behavioral learning theory 102 behavioral perspective 34 Blackboard 39
block scheduling 229
brain activity and memory 153 brain regions 155

constructionist environment, learning process 142 constructivism 99, 283
costume history in a 21st century classroom 237–246 costume odyssey, teaching 237–246 course design, Communication-centric vs. content-centric 56 critical reflection 10
cyclical model in research empowerment 177

D

designing online education, the engine 33 designing online education, theoretical model 29–45 deterritorialization 274 digital games for online adult education 212–222 digital games in online learning environments 218 digital immigrant 95, 99 digital native 99
distance education, adult student satisfaction 58 distance education growth 116 distance education, student barriers 118 distance education, successful learning styles 70 distance learning (DL) 227

E

e-college 39
educational slavery 150, 160
e-Learning 2.0 99
e-learning attributes 108
e-learning experience, quality 101–114 e-learning for the development of social skills 189 eLearning, history 46–53
e-learning on adult education, impact 273–283 e-learning, quality and effectiveness 106
e-learning types 105

F

functional memory 156

G

GBM 229, 230, 231, 234, 235, 317
GIL 231, 232, 233
global business management (GBM) 229 globalization 274
guided independent learning (GIL) 231

H

haptic learners 72
higher education (HE) 164, 165 higher education, technology affects 288 historical perspectives of eLearning 46 humanist perspective 34 human sensory perception 155

I

individual learner differences 71 individual learner differences and success 69–79 information crossover 154 information delivery 285 instructional system design (ISD) 30 intensive course scheduling 228 inverted symmetry 144, 146, 147
ISD 30, 31, 33

K

KAR-P-E 37, 43
KAR-P-E taxonomy 37
kinesthetic learners 72 knowledge, application, research, practice, and evaluation (KAR-P-E) 37 knowledge management for education 108

L

learning community 3, 10 learning cube pedagogical framework 156 learning process in constructionist environment 142 learning style 9, 10, 319 learning styles in distance education 70 learning theories 34
lesson design model 31
life-long learning 287

LMS 28

M

making sense process 157
mixed research and online learning 202–211 mixed research studies, sampling 206 more knowledgeable other (MKO) 35 Motivated Strategies for Learning Questionnaire (MSLQ) 74 motivation theory 103
MSLQ 74, 76, 78, 330
multimedia components 245

N

neurophysiology of synaptic learning 158 nontraditional students and IT 284–304

O

ODE 166
ODL 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 176, 177, 178, 179
ODL, mentorship, empowerment and research tradition 172 ODP, qualitative and quatitative research 174 online adult education 214 online adult learner 1–10 online course offerings perception 87 online course participation, predicting 89 online doctoral degrees, perceptions 268 online doctoral students in educational leadership, perspectives 264–272 online learning, anytime/anywhere 115–123 online learning for adults, fear factors 81–100 online learning mixed research 202–211 online learning mixed research studies 207 online learning, social elements 270 online pedagogical effectiveness 11–28 online pedagogical effectiveness framework (OPEF) 11 online tools comfort 86
OPEF 11, 12, 13, 19, 22, 24, 26
OPEF refinement 21
open distance education (ODE) 166
open distance learning (ODL) 164

pedagogical mediation 142
pedagogical model 99
pedagogy 34, 43
pedagogy barriers 120 presentation modes, selecting 40 presentation of course materials 92 progressive education 285, 286, 294 progressive education for adult learners 294 progressive education for adult learners, future 294 project-based learning 247–263 project management and instructional design, case study 249

R

reflection 4, 6, 7
research design 205
research questions 205

S.A.L.G. 250, 253, 258, 260
self-regulated learning 108 self-regulated learning characteristics 71 self-regulated learning theory 104 sensory learning styles 71 situated learning and cognition 216 social constructivism 99 social interaction barriers 118 social learning theory 103, 104 social presence and privacy questionnaire (SPPQ) 132 social presence, competing theories 128 social presence, defining 129 social presence indicators 132 social presence, operationalizing and measuring 131 social presence, research 127 social presence theory 125 social presence theory evolution 126 social presence theory on online learning 124–139 social skills development 183–201 social skills development, preconditions 185 social skills development, the necessity 184 SPPQ 133, 139

student assessment of learning gains (S.A.L.G.) 253 student support barriers 119 synaptic learning 150, 151, 158, 159, 160, 161 synaptic learning approach, implications 159 synaptic learning, neurophysiology 158 synaptic learning process 158 synchronous 275, 281
synchronous learning 10

T

taxonomies 36
taxonomy 36, 37
technology affecting higher education 288 technology barriers 118 technology in education 104 technology redefining education 275 transformative learning 9, 10, 311, 329 turbo capitalism 274

V

virtual-being-together 141, 144, 145, 148 virtual classroom 290
virtual classroom direction 292
visual learners 72
Vygotsky, Lev 35

W

WBL 14
Web 2.0 and adult learners 64
web based learning (WBL) 14 web courses for the adult learner 55
WebCT 39, 237, 238, 239, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246
WebCT tools 239
Web-facilitated 275, 276, 283
